REVEILLE 1960
Golden Anniversary Edition

Ex Libris

From books. A great part of the world's wisdom comes from books—books of international scope to books of purely local interest. And a type of local book is the community history.

In many respects, the Reveille over the past fifty years has served as a history of Newark Senior High School. Before 1911 there had been some publication efforts such as Hetuck, but in 1911 a seed fell on fertile ground; the Reveille took root and has flourished since.

The initial issue was dated March 1, 1911. Three issues were published that year. The idea of an "annual" evolved rather rapidly, however, for by June, 1914, there was issued a Commencement number that included pictures of members of the graduating class. During the years from 1911 to 1917 there were six issues published each year. Each issue contained departments consisting of such items as stories, essays, and poems by students; editorials, letters from readers, jokes, and advertisements. There was some news, but a large proportion of it was in the realm of athletics. (In this respect NHS has made no change over the years.)

The school year 1916–1917 however, marked a departure from the routine established in 1911. Instead of issuing six magazines, the staff published sixteen issues of a bi-weekly newspaper, which followed somewhat the format of the current Reveille Review. It was printed commercially. The year ended, nevertheless, with the traditional annual. Whereas the final issue of the first year of publication contained fifty-two pages, by 1917 the annual had gone to sixty-four pages.

Again in 1918 the Reveille published a newspaper. Because of the world war, however, the annual was called Taps. It has been said that no annual had been planned for that year because of the world conflict, but that four students who were on the staff of Taps—James K. Miller, editor; G. Charnock Wilson, business manager; Donald C. Power, art manager; and Paul S. Schonberg, advertising manager, believed there should be such a publication and issued one of their own volition. Taps contained eighty pages. In September of 1918 the newspaper was discontinued because of the war. After the armistice of November, 1918, the publication returned to the six-issue magazine. By 1920 the Reveille annual had reached 100 pages and had acquired a more durable cover.

The 1926 annual marked a step forward in planning the yearbook. It introduced a central art scheme, a new style of binding, and a new kind of insert page. The production, along with these several magazine issues, was made up in a newly organized journalism class whose members received one-half credit per year for their efforts. In addition to the six issues, the staff published a full page of high school news in each of the local papers, the American Tribune and the Newark Advocate.

During the school year 1926-1927 the Reveille News was introduced. The paper was run off on a multigraph machine, which had been presented to the school in 1926. In 1928 the Reveille staff published a bi-weekly news sheet, four magazines, and the annual.

The 1929 annual enlarged its page size from the old 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 10 $\frac{1}{2}$, a size it has continued to date. By 1930 journalism was established as a full-credit subject. The staff issued four magazines, twenty-nine numbers of the news sheet, and the annual. However, the year 1930-1931 saw the dropping of the magazine. During the school year 1935-1936 the gradual change-over from multigraph to mimeograph was made in publishing the news sheet so that by the fall of 1936 the school newspaper was entirely mimeographed.

The 1937 annual was unusual in that it was published on paper of a dark buff color or sepia. Interestingly the price of the annual was one dollar, a price that had been maintained for some years.

The 1938 and 1939 yearbooks graduated to a semi-hard cover, but it was not until 1940 that the Reveille blossomed into a volume with a hard casing.

In 1951 the annual graduated to the padded cover, but otherwise the book remained much the same as it had in the past ten years. And then at the beginning of the school year 1952-1953 the Reveille News ceased publication. News of the school was supplied daily to the Newark Advocate. From this point on no credit has been given for journalism.

In the fall of 1953 a newspaper was again published under the name of the Reveille Review. It remained a mimeographed magazine issued once a month until the autumn of 1956 when it once again became a printed newspaper issued once a month. During the year 1958-1959 an attempt was made to issue the paper twice a month, a policy that was followed the latter part of the school year; but in 1959-1960, because of the lack of facilities and time, the paper again has been issued monthly.

Meanwhile the annual for 1959 had returned to the hard cover, primarily because of the cost of the padded cover. For the past several years it had grown into a book of 240 pages at the price of $3.50. And so we arrive at the point where the reader has this issue in his hands—the Reveille that marks the Golden Anniversary of the publication.

Over the years the annual has remained more conservative than many yearbooks by not sacrificing copy to a surfeit of pictures. Because of its peculiar function as a history to which many people in the community and in the school system turn for information, advisers and staffs have felt that the book should not be glamorized to the point of uselessness to the detriment of future reference.

Although the chief architects of the yearbook have been the editorial staff, not a small part of its success over these past fifty years goes to the business staffs, patron staffs, and advertisers. Without the hard work of business staffs and the loyal support of advertisers, the Reveille would have ceased publication years ago.

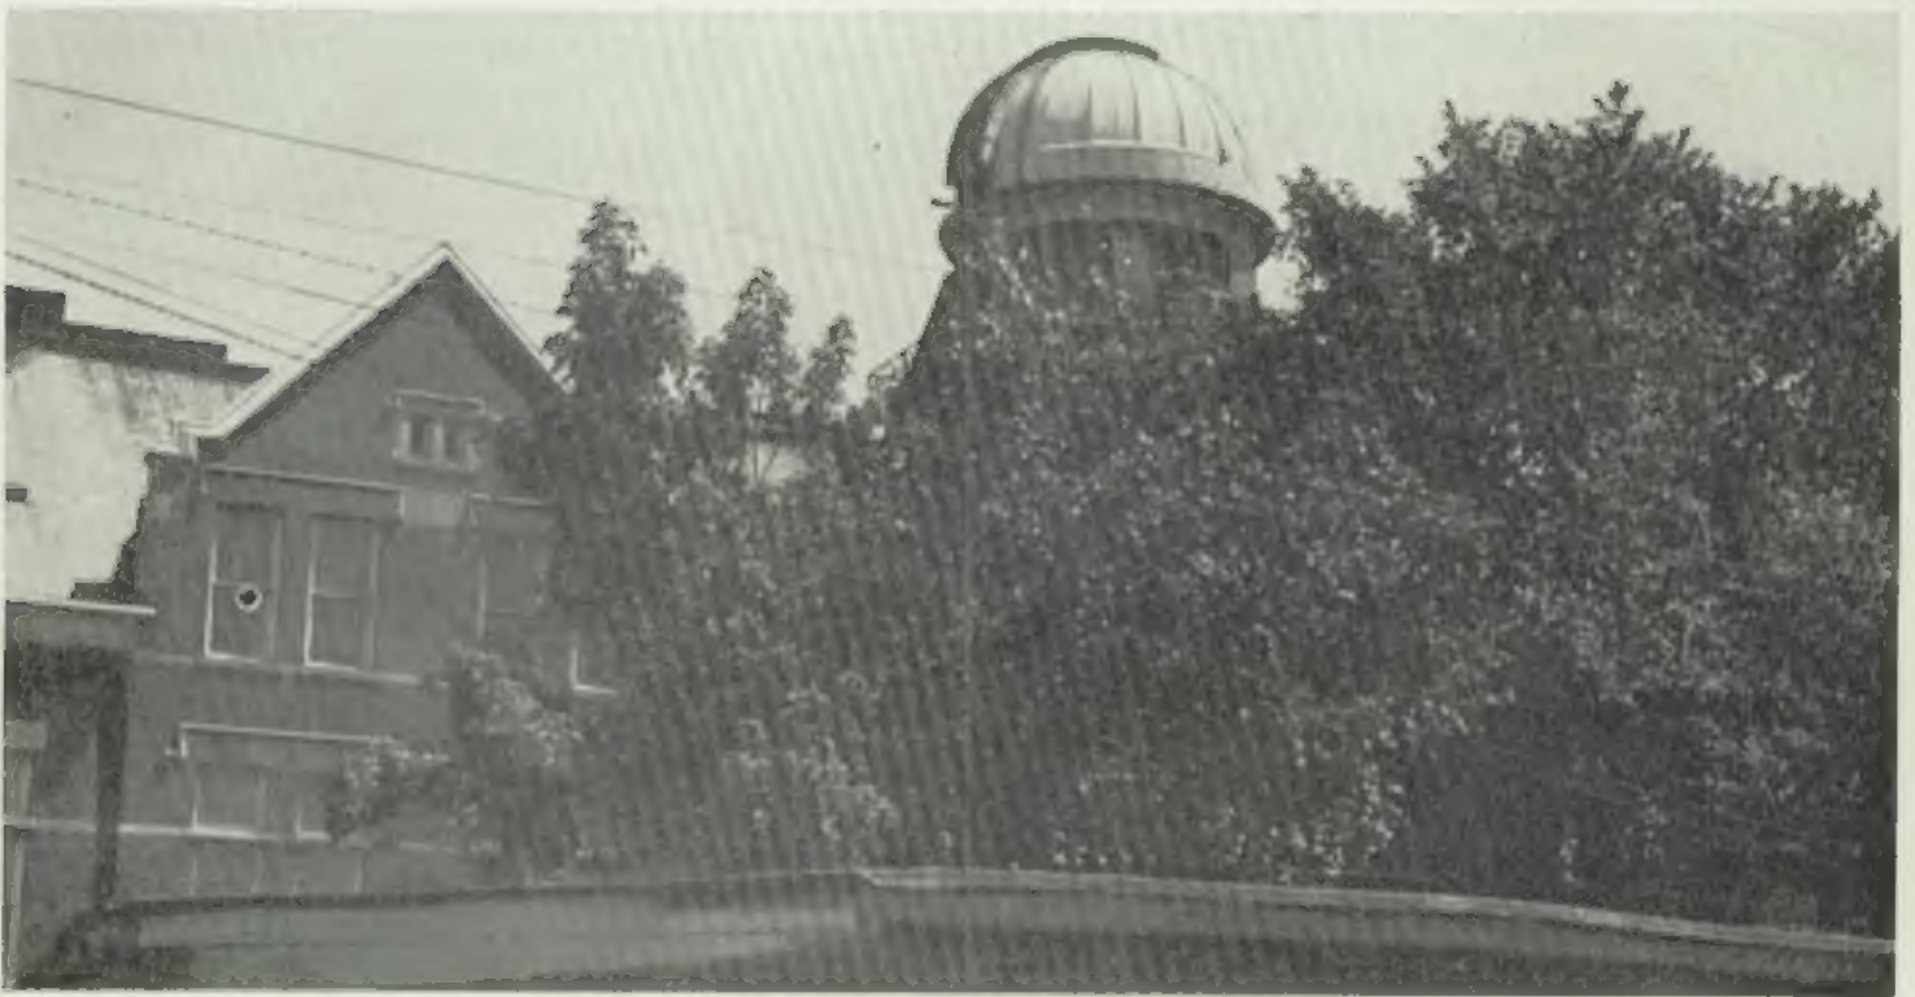

What of the future? At this writing the staff of the 1960 book hopes that in 2010 another group will be able to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the Reveille Annual and that it will continue to be a repository of information to enrich the lives of students and alumni who peruse its pages in order to stimulate their memories and an aid to future historians of Newark Senior High School and the City of Newark.

Foreword

This year the Annual Staff presents with pride the Golden Anniversary edition of the Reveille.

Business Staff

The Staffs

The function of the four staffs is as follows: the Editorial Staff builds the yearbook by means of pictures and copy. It is under the direction of Mr. Gordon R. Kingery. The Business Staff solicits advertisers, the Patron Staff seeks financial support from individuals, and the Home Room Agents sell the Reveille in each home room. These three staffs are directed by Mr. George Stoeckmann.

One other staff, the Reveille Review, issues the school newspaper once a month. This staff, whose picture appears farther back in this book, is under the advisership of Mr. Kermit Long.

Patrons Staff

MISS FLORENCE MYER

Miss Florence Myer retired from the Newark City School System in June of 1959. She began her teaching career in Newark in 1910 in the East Main Street Elementary School. She came to the high school in 1925, where she taught girls' physical and health education.

Miss Myer sponsored the Cheerleaders and the Girls Athletic Association while she taught gym classes. In addition she took charge of decorations at the annual athletic banquet.

While at NIS, Miss Myer made many friends. A long tenure of service has been greatly appreciated by her school friends and colleagues.

TRACK

A BRIEF HISTORY OF TRACK AT NHS

By TOM FORGRAVE

In line with the historical significance of this volume of the Reveille Annual, we present here a historical sketch of track at NHS.

According to Issue 2 of Volume 1 of the Reveille, there was no organized athletic program at Newark High School previous to 1902. In the Spring of that year, however, an Athletic Association was formed. The first group under its sponsorship was a baseball team. The interval between 1902 and 1911 at the moment remains unknown concerning track; however, in the spring of 1911 faculty member Mr. John Edwards announced that if enough interest were manifested, there would be held a High School Day made up of various sports among which in the afternoon would be planned a field meet with Granville, Zanesville and Columbus being represented along with Newark. Mr. Edwards served as faculty manager; Walter J. Livingston, who moved to Denison University the following year, was physical director. Whether the "school day" ever materialized was not recorded; nevertheless, in 1911 track certainly was an established sport, having come into the athletic program some time between 1902 and 1911. And yet, established or not, track received small notice in the pages of the Reveille, for although baseball, basketball, and football received a lion's share of publicity within the pages of the periodical in the early years of its publication, track got only a mention on page 18 of the October, 1913, issue when notice was given that Mr. Lloyd Millisor had postponed all track meets until spring. So we know that track was still in existence. In final issue of the 1913-1914 volume of the "annual," a picture of the track team appears for the first time.

In the April of 1915 a good track season was predicted with Mr. Stimson as coach.

In the April, 1916, issue an article mentioned a class track meet, at which winners would as in the past year, receive gold medals in addition to ribbons given for other events.

So went track until 1924 when the COL was organized.

More complete track records of Newark High school date back to 1924. In 1925 Westerville was COL champ. In 1930 the junior high department began to see that if Newark High were to have a good track team, boys needed to be trained before they even entered high school. A track program was therefore initiated at Lincoln, Roosevelt, and Central. However, from 1929 to 1932, Lancaster dominated track.

Then in 1933 the junior high training showed results because Newark High won the COL championship for the next twelve years. Marietta ended Newark's reign in 1946 and began theirs, which lasted for seven years. Newark again dominated the COL in 1953 and won five out of the last seven meets.

Some of the Newark High record-holders in the COL are George Riley, who set the record in 1951 in the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard dash; Jerry Bishop in the 180-yard low hurdles; Bob McVey in 120-yard high hurdles; the 880-yard relay set by Balding, Campbell, Chappelier, and Riley; Jim Tyrer in the shotput; Dan Roike in the discus, and Fears in the broad jump.

In the spring of 1940, one of the finest athletic events trackwise was initiated. It was the Newark Relays. Held the first Saturday in May, the Relays were staged until the spring of 1953 when the colorful event disappeared from athletic schedules.

The reason for its disappearance was a lack of financial support from downtown merchants. For instance, at the last meet in 1951 the gate grossed ninety dollars, whereas the cost of the meet was $800.

The records for the district date back to 1926 when Columbus East won. From 1927 to 1932 Columbus Central dominated track. NHS got into the picture in 1933 and 1934 by becoming District champs. In 1936 the number-one position was split. For the next four years, Columbus North won the district. Columbus Central began in 1941 again to dominate the picture winning eight out of the next ten. Then in 1952 Columbus East dominated the picture.

During this period, the Negro began to prove himself superior, especially in the speed events in track. This fact was due to two contributing factors: desire and inherent reflex in speed.

Since 1952 Columbus East has won the district five times out of seven. In 1954, Columbus South, with a sophomore Negro youth, won the district due to his exceptional speed. In 1957, as a result of the increased time for practice due to the acquirement of the Denison Field House during the winter months, Newark won the district and was runner-up in 1958.

Even in the state track events, the picture was very much the same: the schools containing the highest number of Negro athletes have dominated the state track meet. Beginning in 1932, Cleveland East Tech, whose male enrollment has been over 80% Negro, has won the State eleven times. Other schools that have won the State Track meet are Mansfield, Dayton Dunbar, Cleveland Central, Cincinnati Central, Cleveland John Adams, Akron North, and Springfield. With a few exceptions, State track champions since 1932 have had a very high percentage of Negro athletes.

One interesting piece of information concerning a state track occurred in 1954 when only one boy led Barberton to the championship. That boy was Glenn Davis. He is the only boy in the state track history who has compiled enough points to make his school state champion. At the present time, Glenn is the World's record holder of the 440-yard low hurdles and other events run only in the Olympic games

In 1958 Newark High placed the greatest number ever to make a record for the school in the state. Usually one or two qualify for the event, but in 1958 nine places were won by Newark High athletes. The following placed in that state meet: 880-relay team, fifth place, 1:31.5, with Kinser, Lonzo, T. Myers, and Bishop; mile relay team, third place, 3:25.7, with Bishop, Leslie, T. Myers, and Metcalf; broad jump, third place 21 feet 8 inches, Jerry Bishop; 440-yard dash, fourth place, 50 4, Roger Metcalf

The outlook for Newark High School is not too bright. At the present time there are no outstanding sprint men in the city. In the past three years, NHS has had only two varsity competitors, Gene Knight, an outstanding football and track man, and Cecil Steele, who was on the 1959 football team. In this year's sophomore class there is only one athlete with exceptional capabilities. He is Bob Ross, who competed in athletics at Roosevelt Junior High School and has potential athletic qualities.

Some of the boys upon whom Mr. Harlow, track coach, depends for the 1960 track squad are Mark Applegate, fullback on the 1959 football team, who has better-than-average speed; and Dale Roberts, Gary Debevoise, and Clyde Bartlett, who are the only boys available for the sprint events. Unfortunately, two boys upon whom the squad depends for the sprint events moved to other schools: Chronister and Ando.

In weight events, Charles Clark, Ed Smith, John Salyers, John Glass, and Ed Walters should do a creditable job in the shot and discus. In the hurdles Mr. Harlow depends upon Brooke Seckle, Bill Smucker, and Clyde Bartlett, who are the top candidates.

Track is different from the other participant sports offered in high school in that each person does not usually rely on teamwork to win his letter for him but upon himself through which he must earn enough points to win it. Track, as a whole, is more of an individual sport than those relying on teamwork such as football and basketball.

KNIGHT PLACES IN DENISON RELAYS

The Newark Senior High track squad competed in the annual Denison Relays held March 7. The only person to place from Newark was Gene Knight, who captured fourth place in the shot put with a heave of 46 feet 11 inches.

BEARS OUTFRAN 'CATS

The NHS trackmen were defeated by Upper Arlington 79½ to 39½, April 9 at Arlington. The Newarkers chalked up first place in four events and tied for first in another.

Gene Knight took a first in the shot put with a throw of 48 feet one inch. Larry Urban hurdled his way to a win in the 120 high hurdles with a time of 16.6 seconds. Tom Wortman cleared 11 feet, 4 inches for a first in the pole vault. Brad Williams threw the discus 125 feet to capture a first. Gene Swartz tied for first in the broad jump with a leap of 18 feet, 7 and ¾ inches.

Gene Knight finished second to Brad Williams in the discus to seize second place and to be Newark's top point-earner with eight points.

NEWARKITES GO TO MANSFIELD

NHS's varsity track coach, Paul Harlow, took a group of Newark contenders to the Mansfield Relays on April 18 at Mansfield.

However, not one of the Newark entries placed.

NEWARK CINDERMEN SPIKE LANCASTER

The NHS track squad romped past the Lancaster Golden Gales, 92-26, April 21 at White Field. The Harlowmen won 12 out of 14 first places in the meet.

Brad Williams was the 'Cat's leading point-earner with a total of 18 points, which came after three firsts and a second. Williams won the broad jump, leaping 18 feet, 9½ inches; then he went on to take the high jump by clearing a five-foot eight inch bar, and hurdled on for another first by winning the 180-yard low hurdles with a time of 21.9.

Newark's field events were outstanding. Hauling the main load was Gene Knight, who threw the shot put 51 feet 7 inches and hurled the discus 124 feet 5 inches to finish as Newark's second best point earner.

Other firsts for Newark were won by Stan Gibson, who captured the 100-yard dash, being timed at 10.8 seconds. The 880-yard relay team, consisting of Stan Gibson, Dale Roberts, Gene Knight, and Jeff Roberts, was timed at one minute 40 seconds to cap another first for Newark. Tom Chronister took first place in the 440-yard run with a time of 55.7 seconds. Gibson won again, as he streaked for a first in the 220 in just 24.7 seconds. Gary Jones ended the line of Newark firsts with a win in the 880-yard run in a time of 2 minutes 18 5 seconds.

NEWARK PLACES SECOND IN COL MEET

The NHS Tracksters captured second place in the COL meet held May 6 at Ohio University in Athens. The Wildcats tallied 65½ points, second to Marietta, who won with 80½ points.

Newark's Gene Knight broke the shot put record of 51 feet 7 inches set in 1956 by Jim Tyrer of Newark with a toss of 52 feet 4 inches. Another record was broken by Chillicothe's 880-yard relay team, who sped the distance in just one minute 34 and 8 tenths seconds.

In addition to Gene Knight's record-breaking toss

Newark won five first places in the contest. Stan Gibson chalked up firsts in 100- and 220-yard dashes with times of 10.5 and 23 seconds. Brad Williams leaped to another first in the high jump by clearing 5 feet 6 inches. A fast moving 53.1 seconds in the 440 by Tom Chronister set up the fifth and final first for the 'Cats.

Other teams were Chillicothe, who placed third with 62½ points, and Lancaster, who finished last with 13½ markers.

'CATS COLLECT SIX AT MUSKINGUM

Paul Harlow, NHS track boss, entered two boys in the Muskingum relays held May 9 at Muskingum, where the Newarkites collected a total of six points.

Tom Wortman placed fourth in the pole vault to collect two points. Gene Knight then hurled the shot put for a second place and four points for his effort.

'CATS TIE AT DISTRICT MEET

Newark found itself in a three-way tie for seventh place in the Class AA Central District Track Meet, held at Ohio Wesleyan University on May 16. Columbus East won the meet with 62 points. Newark, Worthington, and Bexley each garnered nine to place seventh.

Newark's 880-yard relay team of Gibson, Knight, Debevoise and Swartz captured a fourth. Knight garnered a second in the shot put while Swartz took a fourth in the same event. And finally the mile relay team of Gibson, Ando, Debevoise, and Chronister earned a fifth.

NEWARK FLUNKS OUT AT STATE MEET

Newark failed to place in the State Meet.

'CATS TAKE OPENER

The Wildcats opened their '59 season on September 18 with a victory over the Columbus Central Pirates at White Field. The 'Cats scored once in each half and each time added a two-point conversion. Clyde Bartlett scored first on a short plunge from three yards out. He also added the conversion to make the score read 8 to 0. Central bounced right back into the game with a touchdown in the second quarter. Their try for a conversion failed, however, and the half-time score read 8 to 6.

The Wildcats promptly scored again the third quarter on a run by Dave Marzano. On the try for extra points, Bartlett fumbled the ball, but Marzano recovered to carry it over to complete the play. The remainder of the game was simply a series of ball exchanges. This pegged the final score at Newark 16, Columbus Central 6.

'CATS OVERPOWER WHITMER

The Newark Wildcat's roared to a 20-to-14 victory over visiting Toledo Whitmer for their second win in as many tries on September 25 on the local gridiron. Gary Debevoise gave the near capacity crowd an unbelievable aerial show, as he hit his target for eight out of ten passes, two of them resulting in touchdowns. Dave Marzano ran for 105 yards in 15 carries for an average of seven yards per carry.

Bob Gearhart accounted for all three Newark touchdowns as he pulled in two scoring passes from Debevoise and one from Marzano.

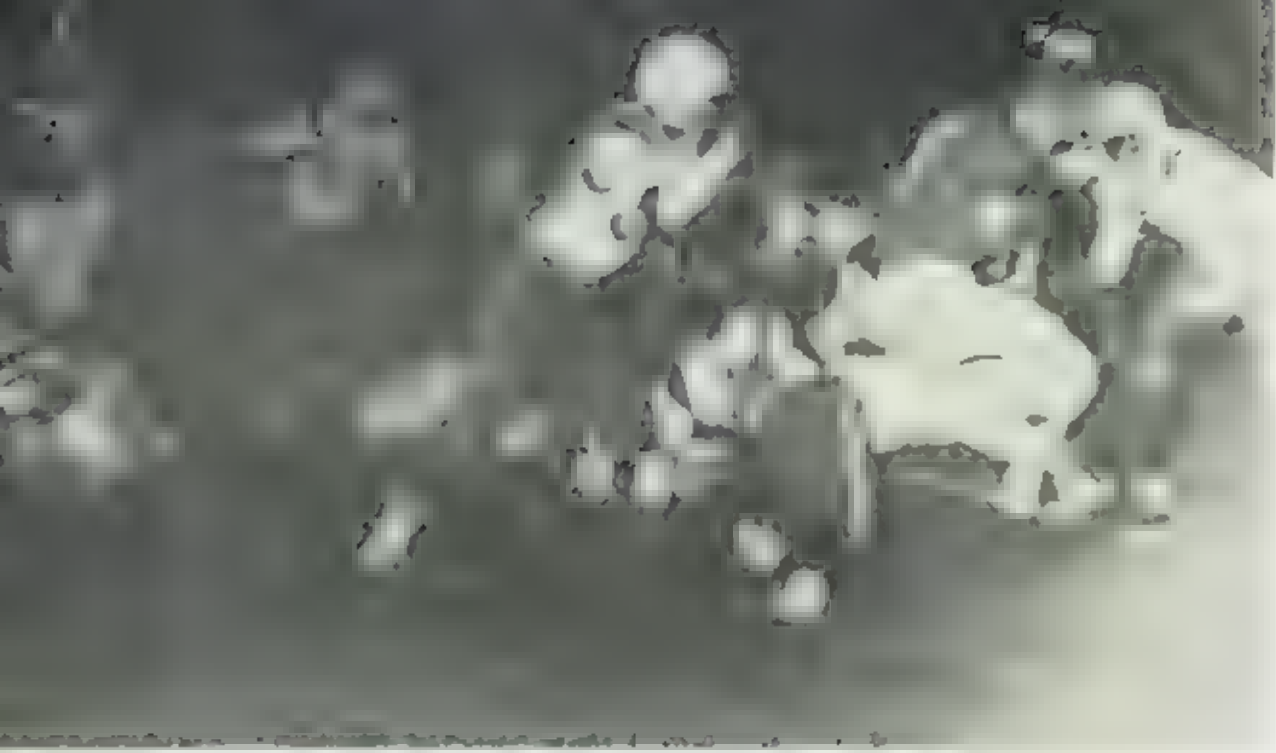

For a good part of the game, defense was completely forgotten, as both teams had little trouble moving the pigskin. As a result of this strategy the 'Cats showed a definite improvement over the game they played the week before with Columbus Central. Newark gained a total of 318 yards, 212 on the ground and 129 in the air. Newark lost only 23 yards all night.

'CATS TURN BIG BLUE RED

On Friday, October 2, the underdog Newarkites came up with a surprising 14-to-0 win over Hamilton Garfield at Hamilton. A large home crowd traveled the 140 miles to watch their 'Cats win their third straight victory.

Dick Bibart scored first on a fine pass from quarterback Gary Debevoise. The two-point conversion was a success, and Newark led at half time 8-to-0. The only other score came in third quarter when junior fullback Mark Applegate scored from twenty-one yards out. The conversion failed, and the remaining part of the game resulted in a continual changing of the ball from one team to the other.

'CATS ROMP OVER MANSFIELD

On October 9, the Newarkites swamped Mansfield 36 to 12 at White Field. Dave Marzano tore the enemy defense to shreds with a thirty-nine yard run and a forty-three yard pass received from quarterback Gary Debevoise.

The 'Cats got off to a quick start, scoring twenty-eight of their thirty-six points in the first half. The visiting Mansfield team was clearly outplayed as their defence and offence both were unable to hold the power-packed Wildcats.

I guess this is the right way

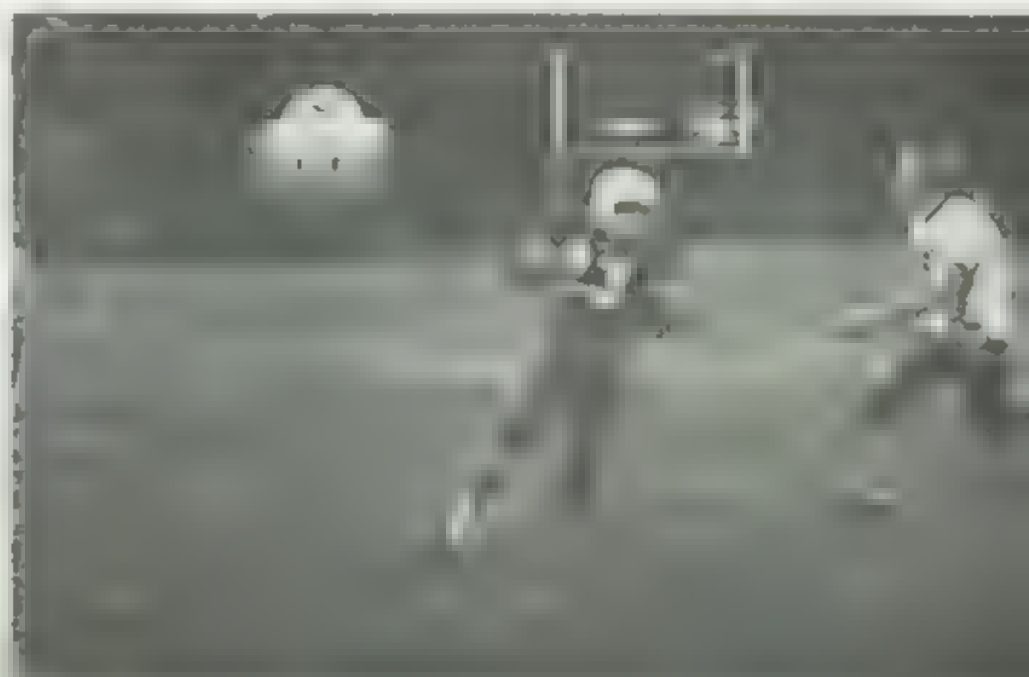

GALES BREEZE BY NEWARK

The Newark Wildcats suffered a rough set back from a tough Lancaster team at Lancaster on October 16 in their COL opener. A hurricane seemed to be in the area as the Gales knocked over the locals. The Newark team was beaten chiefly by a number of completed passes, while at the same time the Wildcat pass defense was failing to click.

The Newark scoring was accomplished by Mark Applegate from one yard out and Clyde Bartlett on a nine-yard advance. Bartlett also scored two extra points to bring the Wildcats total to 14. The Lancaster team, however, scored four times and converted two extra points to make the final tally read Newark 14, Lancaster 26.

'CATS FORKED BY BLUE DEVILS

The Zanesville Blue Devils took advantage of a wet gridiron to thoroughly trounce the Newark Wildcats at White Field. For the losing hometowners it was their second straight setback in league play after winning four straight non-league tilts. The loss virtually dropped Newark from any chance of regaining the COL title.

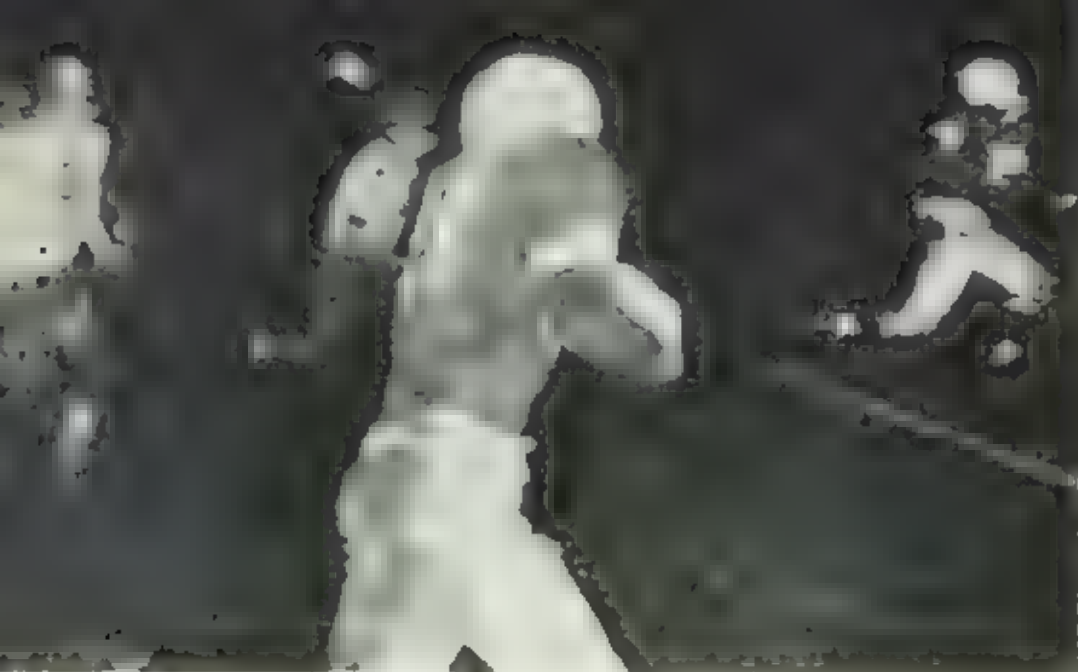

Zanesville's little, fleetfooted Bill Portis scored two of the winners' three touchdowns on runs of four and ninety yards respectively. The only Newark tally came in the third period with Mark Applegate scoring from one yard out, thus capping a sustained drive. Dave Marzano was stopped a yard short of the two-point conversion try. The hometown fans were still buzzing about this touchdown when deerlike Bill Portis took the kickoff on his own ten-yard line and raced into the clear to add another Zanesville score.

'CATS SCALP REDSKINS

The hometown boys won their first COL game on October 30 with a 20-to-0 win over winless Coshocton at Coshocton.

The game moved through the first half to a scoreless tie with both teams continually fumbling. The first score came on a one-yard smash by junior fullback Mark Applegate. Second string quarterback Bill Smucker took over from there on and passed to Jack Dickerson for the second score. The final score was made on a nice 43-yard jaunt by Dave Marzano.

DUELING 'CATS SHUT OUT CAVALIERS

In a hard fought game, played at home on November 6 in sub-freezing weather, the Newark High Wildcats won their second consecutive COL game over Chillicothe 22 to 0. Clyde Bartlett scored one of Newark's touchdowns on a nice run off a pitchout from scrimmage. Bartlett promptly scored again on a perfect 15-yard pass-play from Gary Debevoise. Newark's other score was contributed by Dave Marzano on a fine 47-yard example of broken-field running.

This was also Newark's homecoming game, with Miss Virgene Dowie crowned 1959 homecoming queen.

For seventeen seniors it was their last appearance at White Field in Newark High colors.

'CATS HANDED LOSS BY POWERFUL MARIETTA

Powerful Marietta, ranked eighth in the state, shut out the hometowners by a score of 14 to 0, at Marietta on November 13, to bring the local pigskin season to a close. The undefeated Tigers took the undisputed COL championship title with the win. Newark finished in a three-way tie with Lancaster and Chillicothe. Zanesville's 4-and-1 record garnered second-place honors. Newark finished the season with six wins and three defeats.

The 'Cats, plagued with fumbles and pass interceptions, came close several times to scoring on the Tigers. Mark Applegate carried most of the Wildcat's burden, picking up 75 yards in 19 carries. Marietta scored on a run by senior quarterback Frank Christie, and Dick Croy on a fifteen-yard advance. Following the game, the wildly cheering throng of Tigers fans paraded about the streets of Marietta while the Wildcats fans "silently stole away."

RESERVE FOOTBALL

The Newark High Reserves finished their 1959 season with a record of 2-4. The reserves coached by Dick Schenk and Jim Tibbetts started the season slowly but ended it with a two-game winning streak. The reserves were also scheduled to play Coshocton and Lancaster, but these games were cancelled because of rain.

COLUMBUS WEST

In opening their 1959-1960 season on November 27, the Newark High Wildcats pounced on their prey from Columbus West for a 65-to-34 victory, after stalking them for the first two quarters of the contest. Both teams made a poor showing in the first half through careless passing and shooting, chalking up a twenty-three to twenty-two score in favor of the local round-ballers. The Newarkites, however, were a different ball club in staging their second-half rally to clinch the win.

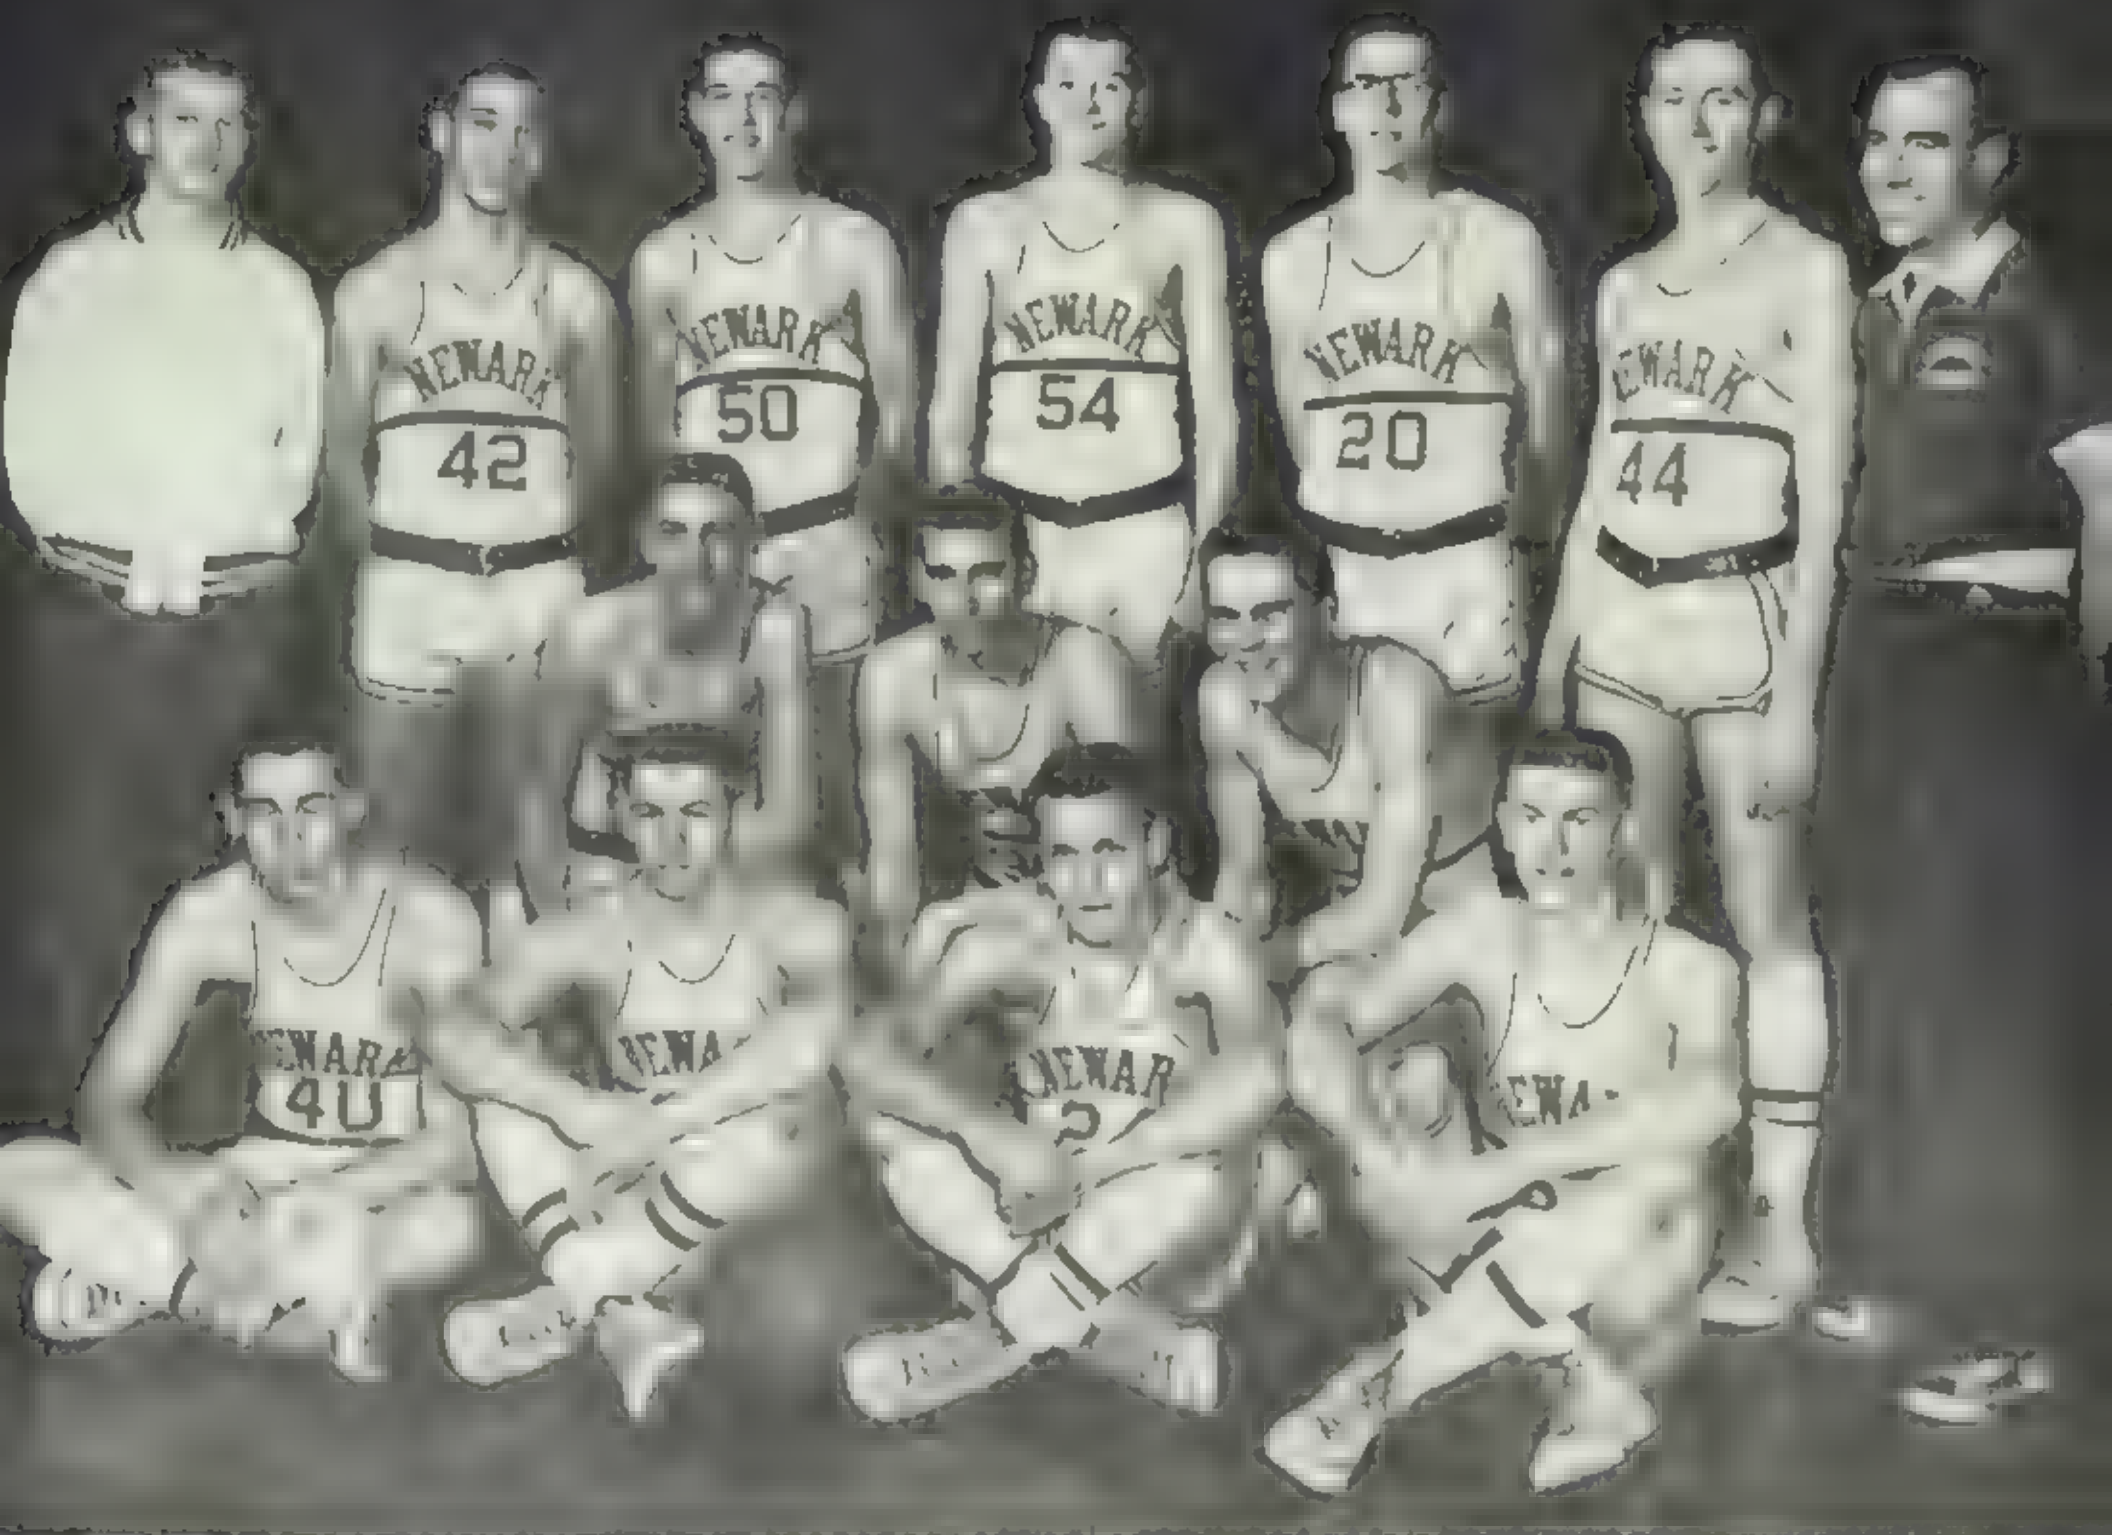

Wayne Isaacs, playing a brilliant opening game, led the team in scoring and rebounds.

Captain Dave Marzano came back with a rally of his own to boost the team with a seventeen-point total.

NORWALK

The battering Wildcats struggled in their second victory, in as many games, at Norwalk, on December 5. The stubborn Norwalk Trunkers fought every inch of the way before bowing to Newark.

57 to 53 for their first loss in three starts. Bob Middaugh, a Norwalk senior, led both teams in scoring with 20 points; Wayne Isaacs paced the Newark attack with 16 points, followed by Morgan and Judge with 15 and 12 respectively. The Wildcats held several sizeable leads during the game, but allowed them to slip back into narrow margins, keeping the victory uncertain until the final buzzer sounded.

LANCASTER

COL competition was begun on December 11, when the Newark Wildcats, accompanied by many local fans, traveled to the home of the Golden Gales. The contest consisted of the style that is usually played on Lancaster's court—fast, rough, and close with the customary Lancaster press, lack of officials' whistles, and a few football tactics. Newark possessed small leads throughout the game but was never in a position to relax, as the Gales tied the score in the closing minutes of the game. Amidst the uproar that filled the gym, Dave Marzano was able to break into the open for two quick lay-ups that proved to be the deciding points. The Wildcats won this third game of the season 51 to 50.

Wayne Isaacs netted 18 points to lead the scoring and pulled down 16 valuable rebounds, while helping to hold 6'8" Cox of Lancaster to a ten-point total. The few foul shots that were attempted were the winning factors in the contest as Lancaster out-scored Newark from the field by one basket.

CHILLICOTHE

On December 18, the Newark High School Wildcats played the first of a series of four home games, playing host to the Cavaliers from Chillicothe. The red and white Newark team recorded its fourth win of the season without a setback, and their second COL victory, in a low scoring contest. The score at the final buzzer was 47 to 36, with only three boys breaking into the double figures.

Dick Bibart, of the local quintet, and Chillicothe's Mickey each scored ten points. Wayne Isaacs, turning in another fine performance, once again led in scoring and rebounding. Isaacs was able to collect 19 points for the evening while picking the ball off the boards 20 times, one short of a Newark Senior High School record. In spite of the fact that both teams had a hard time finding the scoring range, the Wildcats were able to control the lead and the game for the final three quarters to remain undefeated.

MARION

Returning to action on the home court on December 23, the Newark Wildcats presented coach Jimmy Allen with an early Christmas present by defeating the visiting team from Marion 65 to 60 for the first victory over the Presidents since Allen became head basketball mentor. The early moments of the game foretold a rugged, close game. Newark led at half-time by a small margin, and then built up the lead to a 14-point spread in the third quarter. Entering the final stanza, the Wildcats became a little too relaxed as they allowed the visitors full court press to disrupt their offensive machine; however, the Newark quintet was able to survive this period of near panic to retain a five-point lead and their fifth victory.

Newark had four players enter the double-figure scoring while Marion presented three. For Newark, Marzano led the way with 19, followed by Isaacs with 15, Morgan with 12, and Bibart with 10. Kirk collected 18 points to lead the visitors in scoring. As predicted by the early moments, the play was accompanied by an abundance of fouls, as five players left the game via the foul route.

COLUMBUS SOUTH

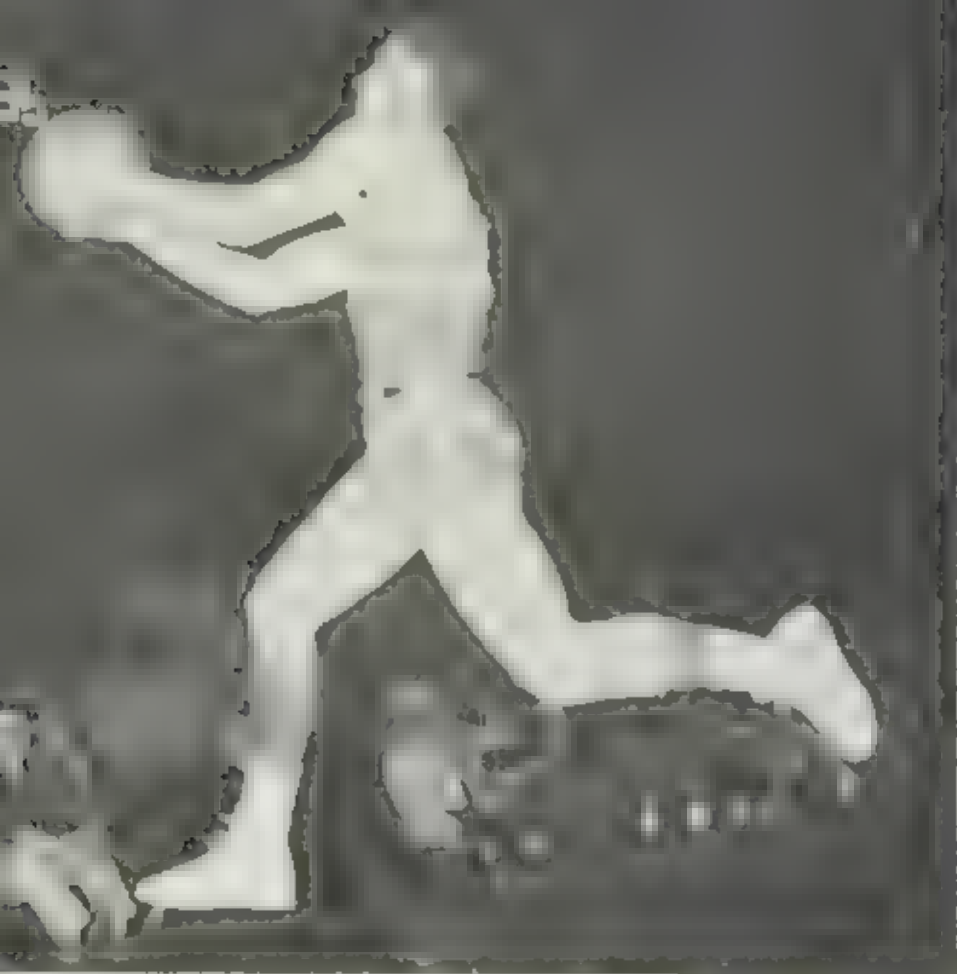

Playing their second game of the Christmas vacation and the last one of 1959, the Newark Wildcats attacked and badly mauled the Bulldogs from Columbus South, 57 to 30, on December 29. After a close first quarter, the outcome of the game was never in doubt. All of the Newark bench saw action in the final quarter of the contest. Bill Morgan, junior pivotman, compiled 18 points for the evening high, followed by captain Dave Marzano with 15 points. Isaacs, nursing an ankle injury suffered in the Marion game, saw very little action, but still led the team in rebounding.

TOLEDO WAITE

On January 2, 1960, the new year was given a rousing beginning by the local roundballers. The

Push

Rock Gallops For Two

Wildcats extended their winning streak to seven as they defeated the Toledo Waite Indians by the score of 68 to 52.

Much of the contest was spent in marching from one foul line to the other. Except for trading the lead a few times in the first quarter, the Wildcats never trailed. Isaacs, back again to usual form, poured 24 points through the nets, his highest to date. Dave Marzano was the only other Wildcat in the double figures with 10. The Indians, however, were able to equal this total with two of their own boys, Fisher and Buschen, with 17 points each. In this last contest of the holidays, the Newark squad saw one of its best shooting percentages thus far in the season. This was also the final non-league game before returning to COL competition against Zanesville.

At this point, the Wildcats shared the league lead with Marietta, with identical 2-0 league records.

ZANESVILLE

On January 8, the Zanesville Blue Devils turned the Newark Wildcat's dream of an undefeated season into a nightmare, as they turned the visiting Newarkites back 37 to 33. In one of the worst showings of basketball prowess in the annals of Newark High School, the invading Wildcats failed to hit the basket effectively from any spot on the floor.

The hosting Blue Devils, although winner, did not make a great impression through good shooting or other skills, as they somewhat controlled the game for the first half, possessing a fragile five-point lead at the buzzer, 20 to 15. The low score gives an indication that both teams were having difficulty in putting the ball through the loop but upon returning to the court after the halftime breather, the Wildcat's difficulties were greatly increased. Zanesville employed a full-court press that troubled the Wildcats no end. Between the intervals of their fouls, turnovers, and missed shots, the visitors managed to score a meager three points, and found themselves trailing at the third buzzer, 28 to 23. Although a small lead, the five-point spread proved to be an impassable barrier.

Easy Does It, Mike

Marzano with 13 points and Morgan with 12 led the scoring for the night. The Wildcats' win-streak snapped, they returned home without the share of the COL crown with which they had departed.

MT. VERNON

Taking the floor on January 9, Jim Allen's Felines still bore the marks of the previous night's defeat as they were again plagued by turnover and an abundance of mistakes. Outlasting the Mt. Vernon Yellow Jackets, the Wildcats were able to eke out only a 56-to-54 victory in the last second of the game. With the lead trading hands many times, the two teams battled back and forth only to find the score tied with 30 seconds left in the game.

With Newark in possession of the ball, the Allen men waited for one last shot, and with six seconds to go Marzano drove to the foul line for a jump shot. The ball rolled around the rim of the basket only to drop off to the side, but Bill Morgan rebounded the ball through the nets for the winning margin.

Captain Dave Marzano hit for 19 points to lead the Newark aggregation in scoring, while Isaacs and Morgan scored 14 and 13 respectively

MARIETTA

A powerful Marietta team arrived in Newark on January 15, leading the COL with a 3-0 league record. The Tigers were greeted by a fired-up Newark squad and received a 63-to-49 thumping, before they boarded their bus that took them back to their lair on the river. The victory over the visiting Marietta team was a sweet one for the local cagers, as they regained a share of the league lead and snapped what seemed to have been a Marietta jinx that had plagued Newark gridders and roundballers in their recent encounters with the Tigers. In winning, the Wildcats played one of the finest team games in the school's history and saw the four starters break into the double figures

Junior center, Bill Morgan, paced both teams by gathering 20 points. Isaacs and Bibart followed with 14 and 13 points, and Dave Marzano added 10. The Wildcats far outshone the Tigers in all departments—shooting, rebounding, passing, and desire. After trading early leads, the Newarkites took the margin at 8 to 6 and were never again behind. The Wildcats steadily increased their lead, and with 3:10 left to be played, they owned their largest lead, 57 to 35. As the final buzzer sounded, the Newark fans, who had displayed as much spirit as the team, rushed to the playing floor to give the team a victory ride to the showers

COSHOCTON

On January 22, the Wildcats traveled to the home of the Coshocton Redskins, resident of the league cellar. The Newark team suffered through an expected and dreaded let-down after their important win over Marietta, to defeat Coshocton by only nine points, 46 to 37. Newark made an exactly opposite showing from the week before, as they failed to find the mark in the shooting, foul shots, and many of their passes. Plagued by turnovers and violations, Newark allowed the pesky Indians to remain within striking distance throughout the entire game. The small Coshocton club outrebounded, outran, and outscrapped the Wildcats but failed to steal enough points to turn the contest into an upset night, January 23, against the Mansfield Tygers, whose season record indicated that they should present no great problems to the Newark five. This game was to be the first that Newark and Mansfield had played since their sports relations had been severed following a near riot after a Wildcat-Tyger contest some years ago. A somewhat unfriendly attitude seems to have carried over, as the visitors concentrated more upon rough and tumble tactics rather than the spills of the game. More than once tempers flared on the court and the game threatened to turn into a boxing match. Fortunately, blows were avoided, and an abundance of fouls was called, as the Wildcats came out on top 54 to 40. Isaacs led the Newark scoring with 15 points, followed by Morgan with 12.

LANCASTER

On January 29, the Golden Gales breezed into town with hopes of revenge for their one-point loss at home earlier in the season. This game marked the opening of the second round of COL play which found Newark and Marietta leading the race with identical 4-1 league records. From the beginning of the game, it looked as if the Wildcats were about to be dethroned in short order, as the Gales outplayed and outscrapped the hosts to take a 22-to-17 lead with them to the locker room at halftime.

However, the Wildcats came onto the floor with increased determination and desire and took complete control of the game the second half. The Gales, outscored 21 to 12 the third quarter, had lost the drive they had exhibited in the first period, and found themselves behind 38 to 34. The Wildcats had found the mark and poured 22 points through the hoop in the final stanza, for a 60-to-56 victory. Bill Morgan and 6'8" Cox of Lancaster shared the scoring honors with 20 apiece. Marzano added 17 points for the victors, and was followed by Dick Bibart with 10.

NEW PHILADELPHIA

It is were possible to join the first half of this game with the previous night's second half against Lancaster, the Wildcats would have had a nearly perfect game from the two-game weekend. In the magnificence of a new and beautiful gymnasium at New Philadelphia, the Newark quintet began the game by swishing four shots from far out on the court, two each by McCann and Marzano, before the host could score, and then followed with a barrage of points that equaled the point production of the second half of the night before, as they led 43 to 24 at halftime. The Wildcats performance, however, cooled off in the second stanza while the Quakers' shooting picked up. New Philly was able to cut the 19-point lead to ten points but could gain no further, and were defeated 72 to 62.

CHILLICOTHE

Chillicothe hosted the Wildcats on February 5, and greeted them with a fired up, red-hot team. The Cavaliers jumped off to a quick and large lead in the first quarter, hitting the mark from all over their court. The Wildcats were badly outrebounded from the beginning of the game, and as the end of the first period were behind 20 to 10. Realizing the bad position they were in, the Wildcats began to show some life as they cut the deficit to five points at the half, 30 to 25. Returning to the court, the fans saw the Cavaliers hit a dry spell in their scoring, a fact that gave the Wildcats chance to come back. However, the Newark team had worse difficulty in scoring, as they managed to gather just three for the quarter. The Wildcats were finished from that point on, as the Cavaliers coasted to a 58-to-44 victory to knock the Wildcats from a share of first place.

Marzano was high for the losers with 15, while Isaacs netted 11. For the winners, Mickey scored 17 points and handled almost all of the game-rebounding chores to lead the Cavaliers to a revenge victory.

ZANESVILLE

On February 12, with a chance to remain in the race for the COL crown, the Wildcats met Zanesville, the first team to defeat Newark this season, to revenge the loss and get another chance at league lead. The first half was touch and go as the two teams traded small leads, with Zanesville on top 35 to 34 at halftime. In the second half, the Wildcats led by captain Dave Marzano took command of the game and steadily built up a lead until the buzzer sounded for a 68-to-54 victory. Marzano, enjoying his best shooting night of the year, poured 24 points through the hoop, as Morgan and Isaacs contributed 17 and 13, respectively.

MARIETTA

On February 19, the Newark High School Wildcats trekked through the snow covered hills of southern Ohio to play a do-or-die game with the Marietta Tigers, who were leading the league with a 7-1 record. The Wildcats, tied with Chillicothe for second place with 6-2 records, hoped to gain a share of the COL championship with an important victory over the Tigers. This was not to be the case, however, as the breaks seemed to go against the Wildcats, who lost a heartbreaking overtime contest by two points.

Marietta jumped off to a small early lead and was ahead at the half, 29 to 26. The Wildcats were not quitting, however, as they soared back to lead 40-36 at the end of the third quarter. Through costly mistakes against a Marietta full court press and dubious calls of the officials, the Wildcats sputtered and allowed the score to be tied at the end of the regulation game. To add tears to sniffles the Newark team lost the services of its two best rebounder via the personal foul route in the third quarter, as Morgan and Isaacs were waved to the sidelines.

As the overtime period began, the Wildcats got the tip-off but failed to score. The Tigers quickly picked up the slack, and jumped off to a six-point lead with less than two minutes remaining. The Wildcats, however, broke up a Marietta stall to score two baskets and trail by only two points. The Wildcats had the ball out of bounds under their own basket with about twenty seconds to play. The ball was thrown into Marzano, who was swarmed over by a host of Marietta players for what appeared to be a foul; however, the ball was given to the Wildcats out of bounds instead. After the throw-in this time, the ball was tied up for a jump ball with three seconds remaining. The ball was tipped from the Wildcat's basket to midcourt where Bibart got control and dribbled toward the basket for a last-second jump shot that bounced off the edge of the rim. The final score was 59 to 61.

Isaacs was the high scorer in the Wildcat's third loss with 18, followed by Morgan and Bibart with 13 each.

COSHOCTON

February 26 brought many things concerning Newark Senior High School basketball to a close. Among them it marked the last home game to be played by the squad's six seniors—Richard Bibart, Jerry McCann, Wayne Isaacs, David Marzano, Gary Debevoise, and Gary Palmer Jones—and their two managers Harry Lytle and Courtland Maple. It marked the end of the regular season in which the Allenmen had finished second in the COL with a 15-3 record. And it marked the last night school game to be played in the Fifth Street gymnasium, which will be replaced as the sports nerve center by the new and spacious building that will be an integral part of the campus-style high school.

Hosting the hapless Coshocton Redskins, the Wildcats finished the season in proper style with a 67-to-47 victory. The Allenmen seized an early lead, and with Bill Morgan scoring 17 and seniors Dick Bibart and Wayne Isaacs and captain Dave Marzano adding 14, 13, and 10 respectively, they ended the game 20 points ahead of their northeastern neighbors.

The final standings in the COL found Marietta at the top of the heap with a 16-2 record, followed by Newark and Chillicothe for second, Zanesville, Lancaster, and Coshocton

The Newark Ironmen turned in a good performance this past year despite the loss of their first three players to grades. Those falling to Newark were Lancaster, $12\frac{1}{2}$ to $7\frac{1}{2}$; Zanesville, 13 to 7 and $16\frac{1}{2}$ to $3\frac{1}{2}$; Coshocton, $12\frac{1}{2}$ to $13\frac{1}{2}$; and Lynwood Jacksontown, $14\frac{1}{2}$ to $5\frac{1}{2}$. The 'Cat Linksman suffered their first loss of the season to Lancaster on the winner's course

The 'Cats suffered a surprising defeat in the COL meet held at Zanesville. They finished third behind Zanesville and Marietta respectively. Newark did well in the district tying for third with

Columbus West with a 336 total, on the Ohio State University, Scarlet Course. This meet was won by Upper Arlington with a 308 total and second was Whitehall with 319

Newark will lose only one man this season due to graduation, this being Tom Chapman. The other four top golfers consisted of Rick Evans, and Mike Stroud, sophomores; and Joe Goss, and Terry King, juniors. The team ended up the season with a good 9-1 mark and is expected to do much better next season, according to Mr. Douglas.

The Intramural Baseball season came to an end when the Senior A team defeated the Senior B team 8 to 3 in the final play-off held May 25 at White Practice Field. The winners of this game have won it since they were sophomores and have been undefeated for three straight years.

The intramural program was also started three years ago and a record has been set already. Scott Marzano and Tom Wortman, both members of the Senior A squad, are the last boys from Newark to receive letters in baseball. Since they were on the last team Newark had when they were sophomores, the only way they could get their letters was playing intramural baseball during their last two years. In doing so they received their letters when they were seniors and had had three years of baseball behind them.

Activities

Time out for a snack between activities.

Myron listens for birdlike sounds in the wood(winds)

The Annual this year begins its chronological Pursuit of activities with the band concert held early last spring and continues approximately through the time of the midyear play this year. It is hoped that the arrangement will help readers of the yearbook to follow the highlights of the school year more easily

On April 16-17, 1959, the Newark High School Concert Band, with three other groups, presented the Nineteenth Annual Spring Band Concert, the thirteenth under the direction of Myron A. Pearce, with Thomas Bynum and Raymond Barrick acting as associate directors, and John Fisher serving as Master of Ceremonies. The program opened with the Beginners Band, followed by the Cadet and Junior Bands

The high school concert band presented Part II of the program using as a theme song, "Say It With Music."

The program of the concert band opened with a march "Montmartre", by Robert Hawkins, and continued with the overture to the Marriage of Figaro by W. A. Mozart; a trumpet trio "Bugler's Holiday", by Leroy Anderson, featuring Catherine Hess, Roger Mitchell and Renny Richards. There followed next a flute ensemble playing "Meditation" from Thais, Massenet, featuring instrumentalists from the Cadet, Junior and Senior bands. The band continued with "Descriptive Scenes from the Sierras" by Dave Bennett, and "Holiday for Winds", by Glenn Asser. Following was "The Flight of the Bumble Bee", Rimsky-Korsakoff, featuring the clarinet section; a trombone solo, "Desert Star", by A. O. Davis, played by Phil Richcreek. A march, "The Stars and Stripes Forever", Sousa, ended the program, which concluded with the theme song

CHORUS CONCERT

The next major event was the Newark High School Choir and Girls Glee Club, presenting their Nineteenth Annual Concert, "Springtime Serenade", in the high school auditorium on April 30 and May 1, at 8 00 P.M. Master of Ceremonies was Edward McGlone, and director, Mr. Victor Batterson. The accompanists were Susan Hupp, Mary Lou Tims, Joan Simpson, Sandra Bell, Vicki Keck, and Jane Farmer

The concert opened with the Girls Glee Club singing, "The Lord Is My Shepherd," Schubert; "Oh Mary Don't You Weep," arranged by Wilson, "Dream Song", Stringham; "Galway Piper", an Irish air arranged by Fletcher, and "Younger Than Springtime" by Rodgers

The Sophomore Girls Ensemble next sang "Madame Jeanette", Murray; "All Through the Day", Rodgers; "A Fellow Needs a Girl", Kern, and "Nocturne", Curran

The second part of the program was presented by the Choir, which offered "Now Let Every Tongue", Bach; "Lord God of Hosts How Lovely", Sateren; "Cherubim Song", Bortninansky. The Junior-Senior Girls Ensemble sang "Musetta's Waltz Song", Puccini. Judson Pomeroy, tenor, sang "Trade Winds," Keel. The choir then sang "Elijah Rock," Spiritual, arranged by Smith. The Junior Girls Ensemble sang "The Shepherdess," Robertson, Larry Potter, baritone, sang "Kashmiri Song", Finden. The Senior Sextet sang "American Panorama", Williams. Selections were then offered by the Senior Sextet Georgia Teal, soprano, sang "I Get a Kick Out of You", Porter. The choir next sang "Johnny Schmokar", a novelty, arranged by Dengler, and selections from Oklahoma, by Rodgers. A choral benediction concluded the program

Student director was Kim Thompson and stage manager was Lee Howard.

The cast for "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was as follows: Steve McNally, Theseus, Duke of Athens; Tom Richardson, Lysander; Robert Sheets, Demetrius; John McClenehan, Philostrate; Alan Tipka, Oberon, King of the Fairies; Hal Snow, Quince, the carpenter; Ed McGlone, Bottom, the weaver; Bill Ferry, Snug, the joiner; Harold Clawson, Flue, the bellows-mender; Walter Bolton, Snout, the tinker; Lee Howard, Starveling, the tailor; Mary Anna Enich, Puck; Judy Gard, Titania, Queen of the Fairies; Bonnie Egnew, Hippolyta, Beth Belter, Helena; Sandra Bonham, Hermia; Mary Phares, Fairy. Student director was Joyce Vermillion and stage manager was Sherie Bontell.

Seniors began their long-looked-for year-end activities with The Junior-Senior Prom which was held on May 23 in the Elk's Ballroom. Highlight of the evening was the crowning of Queen Suellen Sutphen by Dick Bibart, president of the Junior Class. Her court was composed of Marilyn Boyling, Carol Chase, Susan Goodwin, Susan Hupp, Sandy Morrison, and Sandy Scaffide. Music was furnished by the Starlighters.

Eight days after the Prom, seniors arrived at their final week as students of NHS with the traditional baccalaureate service. For the first time in the memory of many alumni of Newark High School, the site of the Baccalaureate service was changed from the high school auditorium to the Midland theater. The change brought about new problems, one being the difference in the two lines that promanaded to the main floor of the theater. These lines were formed under the direction of Mr. Boyd and Mr. Pearce. Also noticed was a considerable number of absentees.

Piloted by Flory Jones and Barbara Kreider, graduates moved to their seats to the cadences of a Processional by Savino, played by the Newark High School Woodwind Ensemble under the hand of Myron A. Pearce.

The Reverend Howard E. Dyer of the Christian Apostolic Church uttered the Invocation, and then the Ensemble played "Three Modern Chorales," by Gordon. The NHS Choir directed by Victor Baterson followed with "Sanctus" from the St. Cecelia Mass, Gounod.

The Reverend Charles M. Pomeroy of the First Baptist Church chose as title of the address to the class "The Dead Branches of Life". After the singing by the choir of the "Battle Hymn of the Re-

Ushers, under the direction of Mr. Robert Barclay were John Ankele, Robert Gaunder, Steve Groban, Robert Hall, Gerald McCann, Dana McQuinn, Lee Orr, Charles Warden, and John Whyde. The date of Baccalaureate was May 31.

On Thursday evening, June 4, 1959, at six fifteen in the evening, Commencement exercises were held at White Field. The weather was perfect for the occasion. The day was warm and dry with a pleasant sunset forming a backdrop to the setting.

The commencement began as graduates walked to their seats to the processional "Pomp and Circumstance."

"Characteristics of an Educated Man" was the title of the address delivered by Dr. W. Bay Irvine, president of Marietta College.

Superintendent Thomas B. Southard presented the annual awards and Mr. Stacy Conrad, president of the Board of Education, issued the diplomas. The Reverend Mr. Jones stepped forward to pronounce the Benediction and the Class of 1959 retired from the field to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance."

At 1:17 in the afternoon of June 5, machinery began to grind the school year to a successful end. Phillip Wayne Richcreek, outgoing prexy of Student Council, led the haltingly jerky rendition of the Pledge of Allegiance after which Principal Frew C. Boyd read parts of the First and Twenty-third Psalms and then uttered a prayer. After the Amen he assured the assembly that he would try to make the program brief.

First on the agenda was a unique honor that was bestowed upon Mary Anna Enich. It was a special award in the form of a certificate originating with the State Board of Education and presented by Superintendent Thomas B. Southard to Miss Enich. The award recognized a completion of a course of basic studies in an academic sequence, which included four units of English, three of mathematics, three of science, three of social science, and four of foreign language. Stating that the recipient of the certificate was worthy of academic distinction, Mr. Southard asserted that this occasion marked the first time the award had ever been presented.

Next Edward McGlone received from Mr. William Brown of Owens-Corning Fiberglas Corporation the Merit Scholarship Award. Mr. Brown stated that Fiberglas had sponsored four such awards.

Mr. Boyd, acting on behalf of several universities, presented to Linda Zeller a certificate of admission to Miami University, to Judy Gard a six-hundred-dollar General Motors scholarship to the University of Cincinnati, to David Smith scholarships to Harvard and Ohio State (Smith later enrolled at the University of Michigan on another scholarship), to Sylvia Maddox a scholarship to the University of Cincinnati, to Roberta MacTavish and Mary Phares scholarships to Muskingum College, to Carolyn Lonzo a scholarship from the Licking County Nurses Society, to Phil Richcreek a scholarship to OSU, and to Gary Bolen a scholarship to Ohio University.

A gentleman who is a member of the Harvard Alumni Association of Central Ohio presented a book to Richard Bibart. The prize is given each year to an outstanding member of a junior class.

Mr. Robert Hughes next stepped forward and for Thespians presented Gold Star Awards to Jack Shumaker, Dennis Runkel, Larry Reynolds, Joyce Vermilion, Kimberley Thompson, John Ankele, Susan Collis, Karen Myers, Thomas Gardner, Mary Anna Enich, James Wright, Lee Howard, Jackie Ketchum, and Harold Clawson. The Gold Bar Award went to Harold Clawson. Certificates of Recognition were presented to Larry Reynolds and Lee Howard. Named best Thespians were Harold Clawson and Joyce Vermilion.

Mr. Frank S. Farrington next presented scholarship pins from the Newark Kiwanis Club to Judy Gard, David Smith, Sylvia Maddox, Joy McPherson, Melanee Morgan, Vicki Keck, Edward McGlone, and Roberta MacTavish.

To Nicholas Zaras the Newark High School Basketball Manager's Trophy was presented by Mr. James Reed. To Gene Knight, Robert Steele presented the Ptolemy Award for an outstanding line man on the football team in memory of Bill Coleman.

Mr. Robert Rose followed with Audio-Visual Service Club awards. For three years of service, awards went to Dale Grove, John Hendricks, Gary Scheffler, Raymond Walker, and Raymond White man. Richard Wallace received an award for three years of service and for earning one hundred points per year. Mr. Boyd and Mr. Robert Powell, coordinator of Audio-Visual Services in the Newark

Sandy Birkey, Marilyn Boyling, Linda Buckey, Diana Douglas, Sylvia Hanna, Martha Imhoff, Beverly Martin, Julia Mercer, Patricia Montanaro, Diann Roan, Bonnie Sunkle, and Kimberly Thompson next received certificates of merit for cheerleading from Mrs. Mona Carlo

Mr. Maxwell Kipp Douglas then stepped forward to present gold awards to Tom Chapman, Rick Evans, Terry King, Joe Goss, and Mike Strand. Mr. Douglas then publicized opportunities derived from enrolling at the Newark Branch of OSU

The Commander of the VFW next presented the Good Sportsmanship Award to Gene Swartz. Mr. Paul Dorland Harlow then gave the Agonis Club Award to Gary Bolen. This presentation marked the last time this award will be made. Mr. Harlow then made his annual bow to the track squad

The president of the Class of 1959, Jack Fulton, next presented to Mr. George Stoeckmann money from the class to the Reveille Annual.

And finally Phil Richcreek happily presented the gavel of Student Council to the new president, John Ankele, who responded with a resounding speech of acceptance and booming pronouncement of policy for year 1959-1960

The meeting was adjourned

HOMEcoming 1959

Activities of the 1959 homecoming began at White Field, Friday, November 6, preceding the football game between Newark and Chillicothe, and ended with the dance held the following night. During the ceremonies at White Field, Queen Virgene Dowie was crowned by John Ankele, president of Student Council. She then presented the football to co-captain Dick Bibart and Dave Marzano

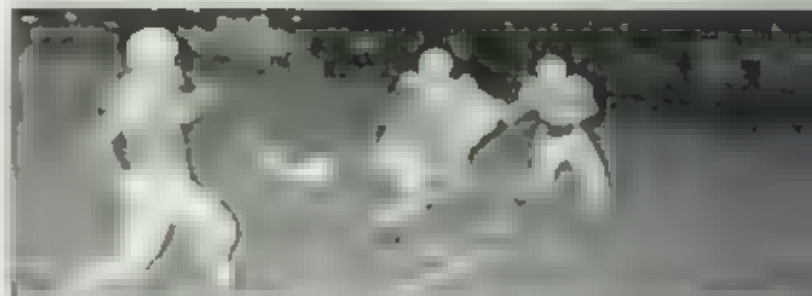

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Held in the Music Hall on December 20, the fourth annual Christmas concert of the Newark Public Schools was presented at three o'clock in the afternoon. The program began with the String Ensemble, under the direction of Arpad Kurinsky, playing "Ave Verum," Mozart, and "Two Old Time Christmas Songs." Auer

The Girls Glee Club followed with "O Holy Night," Adam, "Croon Carol," German Carol, and "Carol of the Bells," Ukranian Carol. Victor Batterson directed

The Band, under the Direction of Myron Pearce and Associate Directors Thomas Bynum and Raymond Barrick, played "March Grandioso," Seitz Quiet Christmas which consisted of "A Little Child is Born," "Lullaby," and "Our Master Has a Garden," Grundman; "The Old Home Down on the Farm," Harloy, with John Whyde as soloist, "White Christmas." The program concluded with the audience joining the musicians in singing "Joy to the World," "O Come, All Ye Faithful," and "Silent Night."

TEN LITTLE INDIANS

During the evening of November 20, Miss Carole Sayles made her debut as faculty coach of the local Thespian troupe with the presentation of Ten Little Indians, by Agatha Christie. Assisting her as student director was Sue Collis, while Linda Pickett served as stage manager.

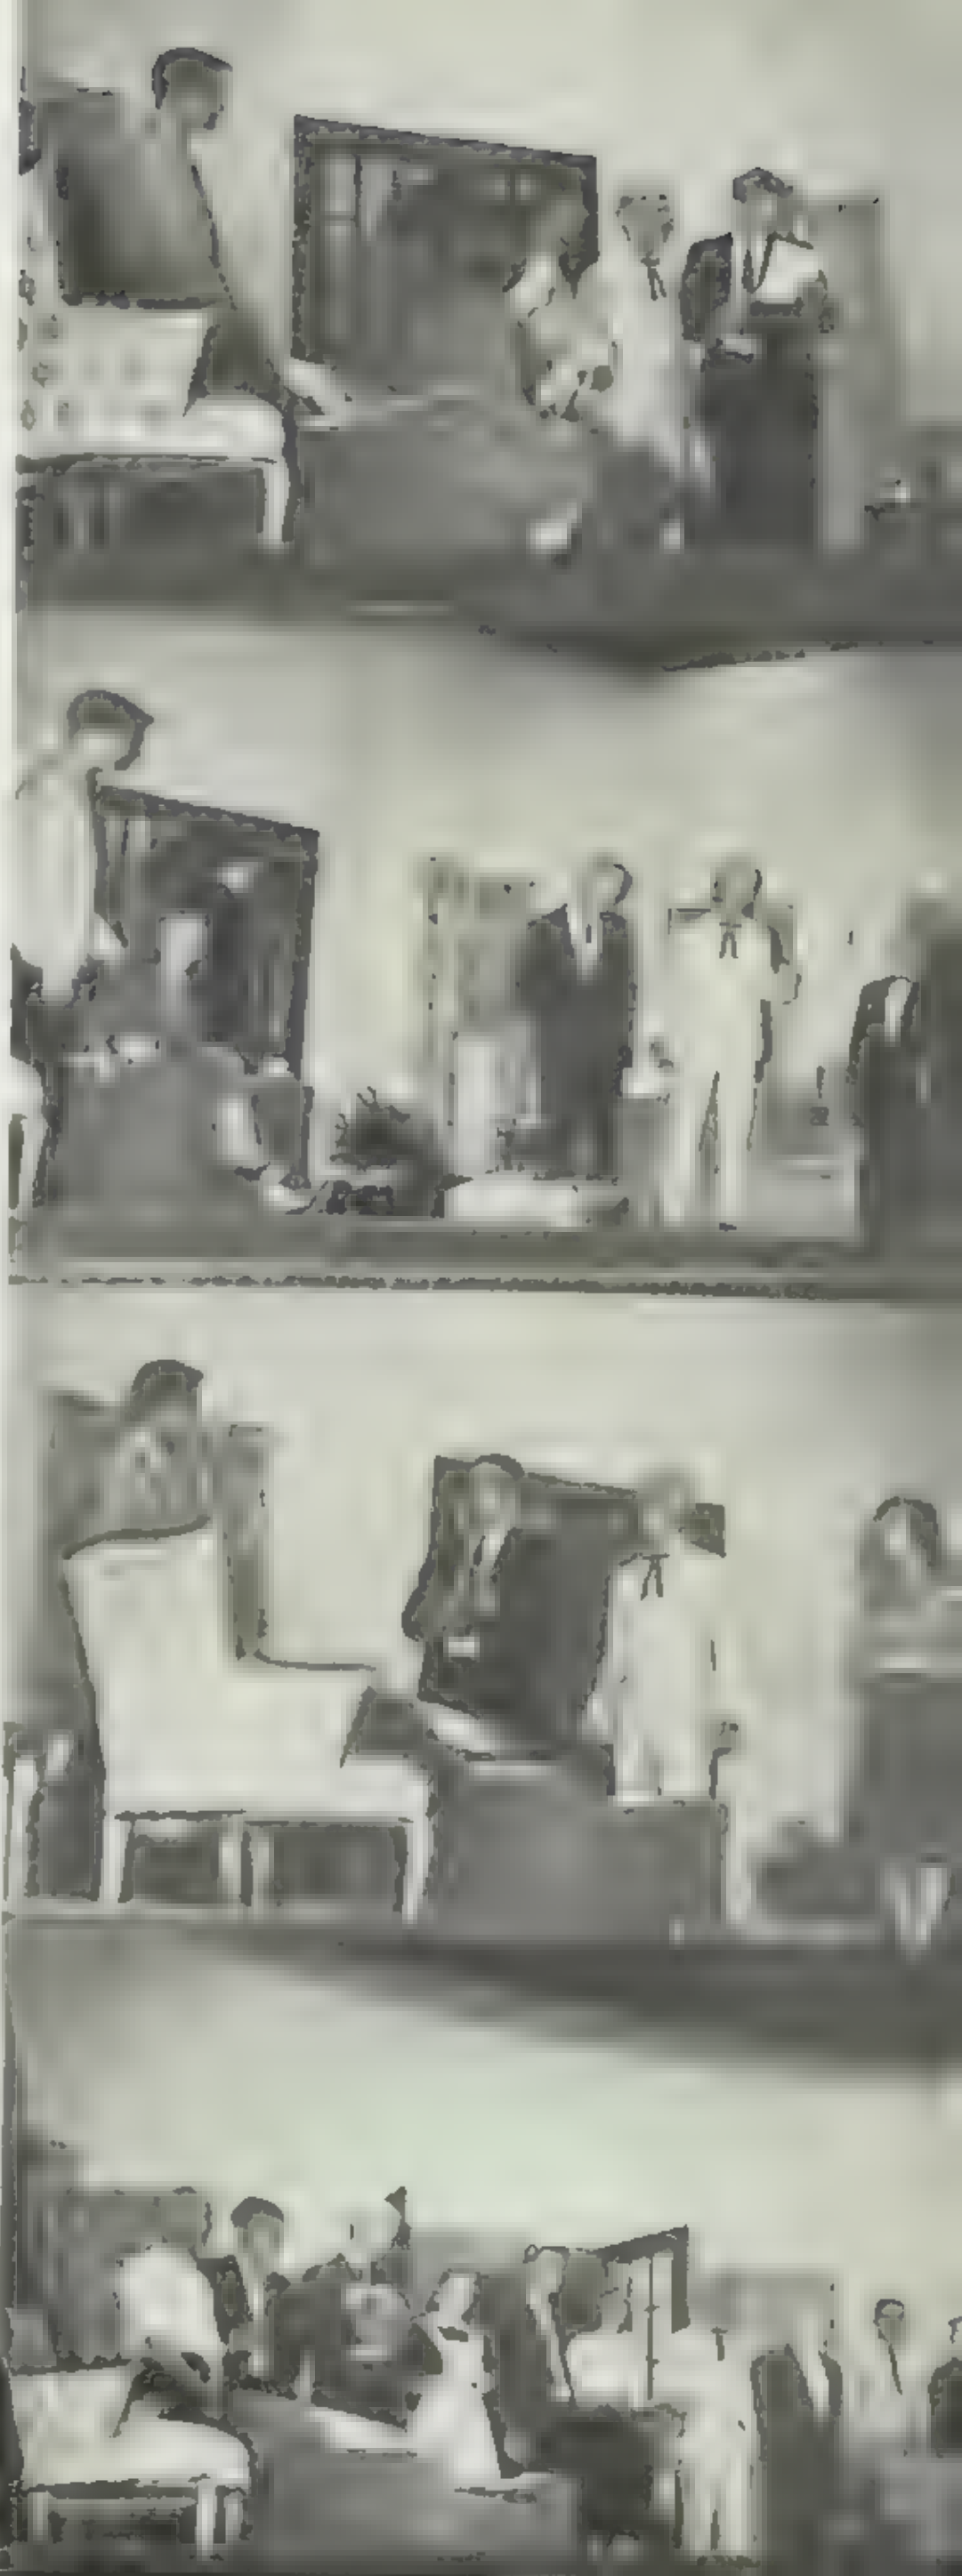

Cast of the excellently presented production were William Anderson as Rodgers; Victoria Lukasko as Mrs. Rodgers; Tom Richardson, Fred Narracott; Karen Myers, Vera Claythorne (female lead), William Martin, Phillip Lombard (male lead); Charles Boyd, Anthony Morston, John Ankele, William Blore; Tom Gardner, General MacKenzie, Joan Simpson, Emily Brent; Walter Bolton, Sir Lawrence Wargrave (the villain); and Jack Olpp, Dr. Armstrong.

CHRISTMAS ASSEMBLY

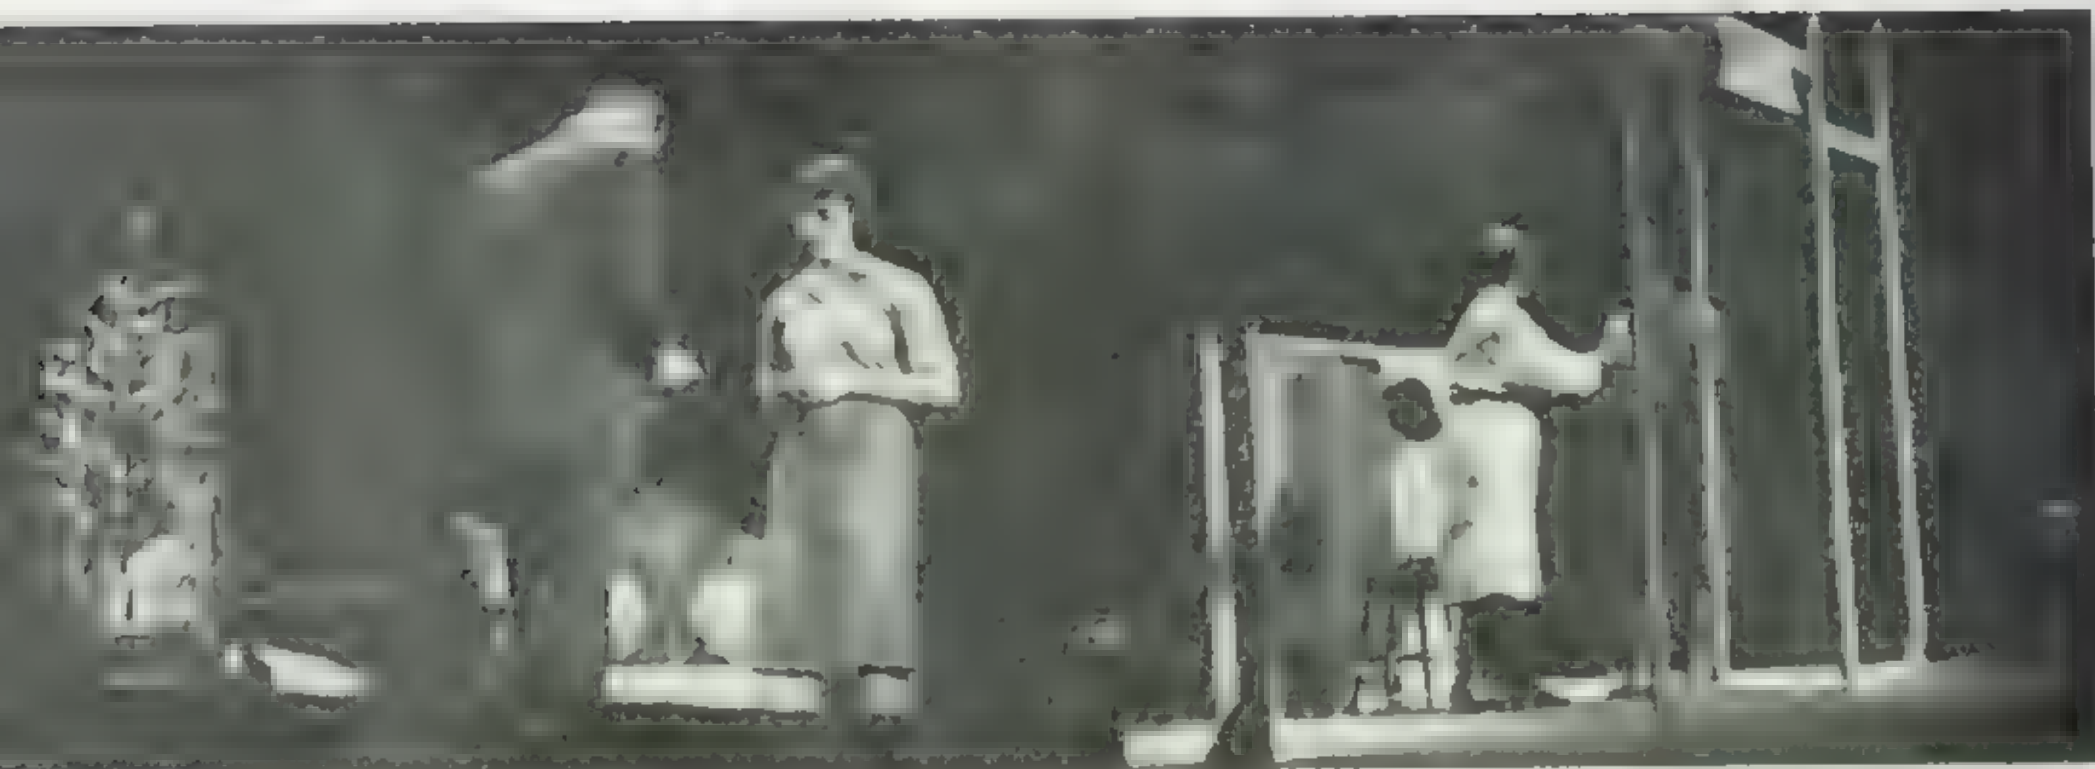

At 8:30 in the morning of December 22, NHS staged its annual Christmas assembly. After leading his contemporaries in the pledge of allegiance to the flag, John Ankele read the first fourteen verses of the second chapter of St. Luke. And then following the usual student invocation of the Lord's Prayer, the Choir, under the direction of Mr. Victor Batterson, sang three numbers. They were "Break Fourth, O Beauteous Heavenly Light," Bach; the echol carol "While Shepherds Watched," Jungst; and "Jingle Bells," Charles. Mr. Batterson then directed the student body in the singing of "O Come All Ye Faithful," "Joy to the World," and "Silent Night."

The second part of the program was an adaptation by Miss Carol Sayles of O. Henry's "The Gift of the Magi." John Ankele constructed the set design and directed the play. William Martin was the stage manager; Lee Howard and Larry Reynolds, the stage crew. The cast consisted of Sharyn Thompson, Joan Simpson, Charles Hollar, Walter Bolton, and Sue Collis.

The Student Council under the supervision of Principal Frew C. Boyd is responsible for arranging assemblies and supervising the activities of the school. Student Council represents the student body in all phases of school life. After each home football and basketball game, the group sponsored a dance.

Officers this year were John Ankele, president; Teresa Wagner, vice-president; Sue Franklin, secretary; John Wyde, treasurer.

ASTRONOMY CLUB

The Astronomy Club, active for its fourth consecutive year at NHS, continued work on their 12½-inch telescope which was started in 1958. Most of their meetings are used as a workshop on the telescope. Outside of working on the telescope, the club visited the Perkins, Denison, and McMillan Observatories.

The officers of the club are Becky Bloss, president; Judy Ashcraft, vice president; Lee Howard, secretary-treasurer; and Mr. Virgil Ashcraft, the faculty adviser.

JOURNALISM

Ending their second year as a separate staff from the annual, the Reveille Review newspaper, under Kermit Long, ends another year as a worthwhile and interesting publication. During the year the newspaper staff received a second class rating from the NSPA judging, National Scholastic Press Association. This organization to which the staff belongs judges papers of high school and college all over the country.

Larry Joe Myers, editor-in-chief of the paper, had a staff of 30 under him. Included in the group of editors were Carl Oatman, news editor; Gwen Owen, assistant news editor; Flory Jones, feature editor; Diane Helman, assistant editor; Ben Rader, sports editor; Willa White, assistant sports editor; Jim Braden, business manager; and Judy Maddux, assistant business manager.

The Reveille Review put out nine issues. Special issues were put out at Christmas and in May before graduation. Beside the publication of the paper, the staff is an active member of the Quill and Scroll, and international honorary society for outstanding high school journalists.

This year's Senior Y-Teens had a very successful and busy year with many activities. During the month of October the membership drive was in full swing. The Formal Initiation at the Baptist Church and making decorations for the Tea House of the World Fellowship Bazaar kept November going. At the December meeting Mrs. Boyd told about Christmas in other lands. In January the Mental Health Starlight classes at Conrad, Lincoln, and Keller began. The Y-Teens and the Hi-Y alternated in giving devotions. Then to round out the activities of the year a dance was held in April, called the Bunny Hop.

This year's officers were Anita Freytag, president; Barb Williams, vice-president; Luanne Handel, secretary; Virgene Dowie, treasurer.

The Junior Y-Teens has a membership of 101 girls. The officers are Anna Lou Howard, president; Nancy Boyd, vice-president; Susan Atkinson, secretary; and Sally Vaughn, treasurer. The cabinet are Carol Campbell, worship; Judy Ashcraft and Carol Children, publicity; Barbara Bazler, social; Lynn Reid, membership; Vicki Trimble, service; Debbie Campbell, program director.

Activities included participation in the recognition service, providing Christmas dinner for a needy family, helping with the YWCA-JC's Pancake Day, working in the snack bar at the Newark Hospital, and decorating the bulletin board in the second floor hall.

They held monthly meetings.

Miss Headlee was the faculty advisor.

Hi-Y

In 1959-60 the Newark Senior Hi-Y Club had one of the largest memberships in its history. Membership consisted of senior, junior and sophomore boys, who were interested in their own future, both morally and physically.

On October 31 the annual Halloween party was held, which was open to all of the children of the city. In early December a few boys and the club adviser, Mr. Charles Beadle, went to Hi-Y conference at Columbus. During the short break at Christmas time, there was a dance for all Hi-Y members and their guests. On January 2 the Hi-Y basketball team played the Kittens in the preliminary game when the 'Cats played Toledo Waite. Early in 1960 a formal induction was held for all new members.

KEY CLUB

Having one of the most active Key Clubs in the state, the Newark High division, with Steve Groban, president, Dave Leidy, vice-president, Shannon Van Wey, treasurer, and Walter Bolton, secretary, participated in many projects during the past year. As a junior organization of the Kiwanis Club, under the supervision of Mr. Jack Hale, the Key Club is mainly a service organization to the community as well as the school.

A few of the club's activities included assistance to the Licking County Tuberculosis Society in the distribution of Christmas Seals, a Christmas candy sale, the presentation of a wall clock to the school for the first-floor hall, providing ushers for football and basketball games, and participation in Key Club conventions.

A new addition to the Key Clubs of Ohio was the organization of a Key Club Basketball League, in which the Newark quintet, definitely of championship quality, suffered through a season of bad luck and failed to capture the league championship.

SALES ORGANIZATION

SALES ORGANIZATION

The Sales Organization functions only during football season. Its job of selling refreshments at the games is directed by Mr. Edward Stradley. Each unit selling refreshments is under the supervision of a faculty member. This years supervisors were Mr. Powers, Mr. Dudding, Mr. Stradley, and Mr. Watson. Students working were paid on an hourly and commission basis from which they gain much practical experience.

Some of the profits have been used to replace equipment damaged in the January flood of 1959.

It is intended to spend some of the accumulated savings for items beneficial to the entire student body in the new high school. This practice has been followed in the past.

The new unit used on the south side of the field during the 1959 season was well accepted by the public. This mobile unit was made available through the cooperation of the Newark Coca-Cola Bottling Co.

This year's program compared favorably with past years.

AUDIO VISUAL SERVICE CLUB

The Audio Visual Service Club is opened to all boys who are interested in tape recorders, record players, movie cameras, and other instruments such as these. Boys who are seeking membership for the club take a two-week training course on how to operate the machines. After the completion of this course, they are given an exam on the equipment which they have studied before they can become members. This is the only restriction concerning membership in the club.

This year the club consists of 14 members, one of the smallest memberships the club has had. The boys run sound equipment for all of the assemblies and are on call by any teacher who wishes to show a movie or has another need of this kind. Mr. Robert Rose, who is the adviser of the club, stated that "the boys are a very deep asset to the school."

The club has a point system, which is based on hours they participate in working for the club and for which a boy receives a projector emblem for outstanding work. After eight hours of operation a boy may receive a certificate.

In December of this year Lee Howard, Larry Reynolds, and Mr. Rose helped The Ohio State University conduct an experiment in closed circuit TV. Lee and Larry operated a television camera while Mr. Rose learned to be a console operator. The boys helped OSU very much and learned some valuable information while doing so.

Mr. Rose is hoping to have an amateur Radio Club next year that will be indirectly connected with the Audio-Visual Club.

The club met the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month after school. Officers of the club were Larry Reynolds, president; Bill Palmer, vice-president; and Robin Hendricks, secretary-treasurer.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

The purpose of Distributive Education is to create an interest in the field of distribution. This club is open to seniors of Newark High School who are interested in salesmanship.

The 28 members of the group enjoyed an interesting and varied program during the school year. The club engaged in three sales projects. At Christmas time it carried out two projects—the collection of toys and clothing for the mentally retarded children at the Moundbuilders Guidance Center, and the sponsoring of a needy family.

Members toured many of the local retail stores, the local radio station WCLT, the Advocate. Also the group attended the Central and Southern regional convention of the D.E.C.A., where Sherrie Bantell was elected regional secretary treasurer, and the state convention, which was held the first week in March.

On the social side, the club held a Thanksgiving party in the home of Edris Adams and a Christmas party at the home of the club advisor and coordinator, Mr. Bernard Nye. DE sponsored a "dress-up" week in the spring for the whole student body and a dance on April first. The annual employer-employee banquet was also held in the spring.

The following officers guided the members through the year's activities: Judy Iler, president; John Stevens, vice president; Sandra Cline, secretary; and Jo Ellen Klein, treasurer.

COLLEGE CLUB

Active only the first semester, the College Club was under the direction of Miss Dorothy Orndorff. Members heard representatives from the Ohio State University Newark Branch, Capital University, Miami Valley Hospital, Washington and Jefferson College, Wittenberg College, and a panel from OSU. They heard matters concerning social, economic, and educational problems in relation to these respective schools.

Officers were Walter Bolton, president, Linda Swartz, vice president, Penny Earl, secretary, and Pat Montanaro, treasurer.

MUSIC APPRECIATION

Under the leadership of Carol Wright, president, Carolyn Holbert, secretary, and Winogene Acton, treasurer, Music Appreciation had a very satisfactory year. After listening to "Danse Macabre," Saint-Saens, and "A Night on Bald Mountain," Moussorgsky, as initial offerings in recognition of that greatest of all holidays, Halloween, the club, at the suggestion of its adviser, Mr. Gordon R. Kingery, voted to listen to a series of concertos featuring several different instruments and outstanding soloists, orchestras, and conductors.

Members heard Concerto in E Minor, Mendelssohn, with Zino Francescatti, violinist, the Philharmonic-

Symphony Orchestra of New York, Dimitri Mitropoulos, conductor; Concerto No. 2, in B-flat, Brahms, Emil Gilels, pianist, the Chicago Orchestra, Fritz Reiner; Concerto No. 1, in B-flat Minor, Van Cliburn, pianist, with a symphony orchestra under the direction of Kiril Kondrashin; Concerto in G Minor for Organ, String Orchestra and Timpani, E. Power Biggs, organist, the Columbia Symphony Orchestra, Richard Burgin; and Harold in Italy, Berlioz, William Primrose, violist, the Boston Symphony Orchestra, Serge Koussevitzky.

After the completion of the round of concertos, the group listened to several symphonies and numbers especially requested by individuals.

CHOIR

With a membership of 65 the Newark High School Choir, under the direction of Victor Batterson, has had a year filled with many activities.

They began the year with a select group singing for the Kiwanis Club's Thanksgiving luncheon. As Christmas approached, they had two music programs. At the Second Baptist Church they presented their annual program and on December 21, with the band and glee club, they presented another Christmas program to get all in the spirit for the coming holiday.

At the Solo and Ensemble Contest the members that participated received superior, excellent, and good ratings. On March 19, the Choir participated in the district contest held in Newark.

One of the highlights of the year for 16 members of the group was the trip to Ohio Wesleyan University where they were among 1350 other musicians from all over the State. In the day spent there they practiced eight numbers and recorded them that evening.

GLEE CLUB

Under the direction of Mr. Victor Batterson, the Glee Club, 85 strong, participated in many music activities over the past year.

Some of these included the Christmas program on December 21 at the Newark High Band Room and the Spring Music Festival April 29. Members of the sophomore ensemble have also sung at several meetings and other places during the year including the solo and ensemble contest held in Mount Vernon, March 5. At this contest ratings of excellent were received by both the ensemble and soloists.

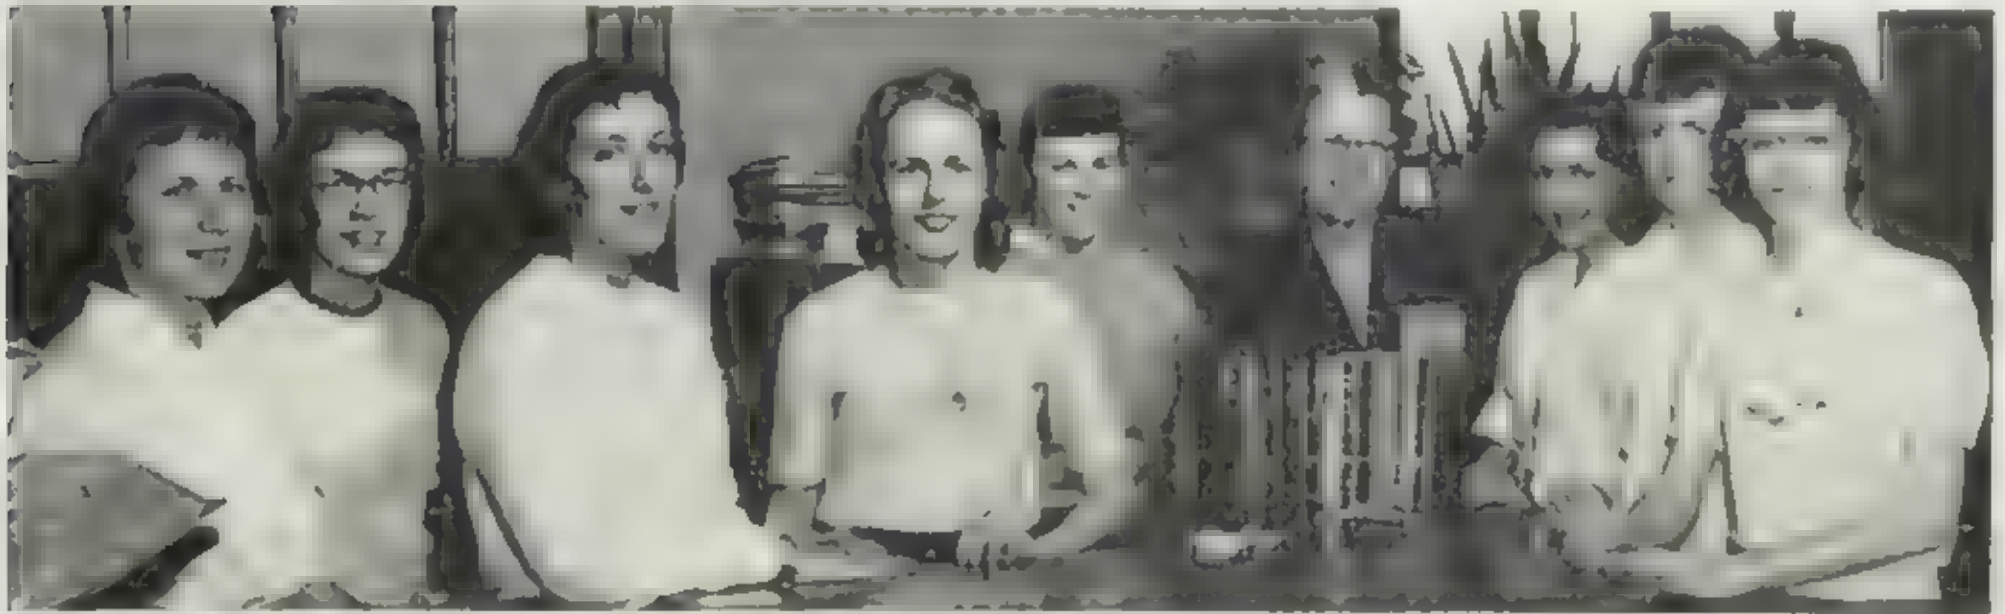

BAND

The Band entered their annual training period in preparation for marching season on August 28 which continued through September 4. On September 1 the Band participated in the Labor Day Parade. It also took part in a series of parades including the United Appeal Parade, the Fun Fest parade and the Santa Claus Parade. December 4-5 was the Annual Tag Day. The Christmas concert was held December 20. On January 20 the annual banquet was held at the Elks. March 5 marked the District Solo and Ensemble Contest. April 7-8 offered the Spring Band Concert. The Band Festival at Washington Court House was held May 13-14. The Band played for the Commencement Services on June 9. These musicians ended their year with the Summer Band Concert of July 28 and the Band school picnic on July 29.

There were 120 members in the band whose officers included Terry Cooperider, president; Terry King, vice-president; Nancy Crist, treasurer; and Judy Duncan, secretary.

LIBRARY CLUB

Carol Billett, Kathie Copeland, Peggy Roof, Judy Ashcraft, Barbara Grunewald, Miss Dorn, Judy Truex, Donna Marsten, Sheryl Schneider. Missing from picture was Nancy Shubing.

A very useful club this year is the Library Club. The members assist with library routines, take care of bulletin boards, check on overdue and lost books, and process new books.

During the second semester candy sales were used to pay for a subscription to HORZON. This was their library project.

A picnic was held in the spring and several meetings and parties were arranged during the spring.

Members were Nancy Shubing, Kathie Copeland, Judy Truex, Judy Ashcraft, Carol Billett, Barbara Grunewald, Peggy Roof, Donna Marsten, and Cheryl Schneider. Miss Dorn was adviser.

DEBATE

By John Ankele

Newark debaters devoted their research for the 1959-60 season to the topic, "Resolved, that the Federal Government should substantially increase its control over labor unions."

The varsity team consisted of John Ankele and Charles Hollar on the affirmative, and Viki Lukasko, Walter Bolton, and Robert Boyce competing for positions on the negative side. The over-all record for the team was as follows: Ankele and Hollar on the affirmative had 23 wins and two losses. Lukasko and Bolton had 10 wins and 15 losses.

Penny Shumaker, Jane Plummer, Connie Coelho, Nanette Never, Sharyn Thompson, Jim Lukasko, Jim Macklin, Shannon Van Wey, and Dick Marsh alternated for positions on the "B" and "C" teams, with Thompson and Shumaker devoting most of their time to extemporaneous speaking.

The season opened on October 24 with a novice tournament at Columbus East High. There the "C" team broke even with three wins and three losses. For the third consecutive year, NHS sponsored a tournament on November 14. Newark's "B" team won four and lost two. The "C" team again split with a 3-3 record. The following week the "A" team traveled to Louisville where John Ankele and Charles Hollar on the affirmative won three out of three and Viki Lukasko and Walter Bolton on the negative lost three out of three.

On December 5 the Ohio High School Speech

League Tournament was held at The Ohio State University. The "A" team won all of their debates, the "B" team won two and lost two and the "C" team won three and lost one. At Wooster, on December 12, John Ankele and Charles Hollar won three out of three debates and Walter Bolton and Viki Lukasko won one and lost two in "A" division. The same week the "B" team won one and lost five at Dayton Fairmont High School.

On January 9, Walter Bolton and Charles Hollar, debating the affirmative, won two and lost two at Port Clinton. Viki Lukasko and Robert Boyce on the negative lost three out of three in "A" division. An "A" team composed of those same debaters won three and lost three at Delaware the following week. In "B" division Newarkers won five and lost one at that tournament. On February 6 the "B" team won one and lost five at Urbana, and at an OHSSL tournament an "A" team composed of Walter Bolton, Charles Hollar, Viki Lukasko, and Robert Boyce lost four out of six at Heidelberg College.

The OHSSL District tournament was held at Ohio State on February 20. John Ankele and Charles Hollar debating the affirmative won two and lost one. Walter Bolton and Viki Lukasko on the negative lost three.

The Newarkers were coached by Mr. Jerry Dudding.

SCIENCE CLUB

Seated—Carol Evans, Sandy McCoy, Winnie Hovis, Carol Bowman, Peggy Cagney, Winogene Acton, Fred Fryman. Standing—P. G. Steinberger, Robert Martin, Vicki Lukasko, Joe Goss, Wayne Lashley, Robert Swisher, Gary Hamer, Shannon Van Wey, Jack Gunther, Judy Meyers.

Membership in the Science Club is open to any student having an interest in Science. The purpose of the Science Club is to supplement class discussion, to acquaint the student with careers open to him in science, and to try to provide the student with incentive to do additional research on his own. The club used speakers, visual aids, and tours to acquaint its members with the different fields of science. Several members this year entered projects in the Ohio State Science Fair in April.

Mr. P. B. Steinberger was the advisor of the club. Officers were Fred Fryman, president; Sue Colis, vice president; Sandra McCoy, secretary; and David Ashly, treasurer.

The mathematics club this year had a membership of 62 juniors and seniors who are now taking or have completed their third year of college preparatory mathematics.

The club began the year's activities with an impressive formal initiation held by candlelight. Several interesting and informative meetings were held throughout the year. Included in the meetings were speakers from colleges, industry, the fields of engineering and accounting, and our own membership. During the year we also toured Kaiser, State Farm Mutual Insurance, Booty Resineers and the Federal Reserve Bank in Cleveland, Ohio. The club also sponsored a dance, a movie, and a panel discussion on radio WCLT. The year was concluded with a picnic given by the junior members in honor of the graduation senior members.

The officers for this year were Bob Gaunder, president; Carol Reid, vice-president; Dana McQuinn, secretary; Doug Stauffer, treasurer.

FUTURE TEACHERS

The purpose of the Future Teachers Group is primarily for guiding prospectives in their pursuit of understanding and practical knowledge of teaching. This is accomplished through investigating teaching requirements, studying the problems of the teacher, observing the classroom in operation and by means of contact with qualified people in the various departments of the public educational system.

This year the club consists of thirty members interested in such phases of education as elementary teaching, commercial and home economics teaching, coaching, counseling, and administration.

The Officers of the Senior High Chapter were Kathie Copeland, president; Janice Wolford, vice president; Suzanne Morris, secretary; and Nancy Blamer, treasurer.

THE GYM LEADERS CLUB

Gym Leaders Club's meetings were held the second and fourth Tuesdays of each Month from 6:00 to 7:30. On October 13 the club had a spaghetti dinner at the Center Cafe and on November 24 a Thanksgiving dinner at the Maple Inn. On January 22 a play day for the ninth graders was held at Newark High School gym. The Gym Leaders sponsored it and served refreshments.

The officers for this year were Barb Kreider, president, Bonnie Sunkie, vice-president, Anita Freytag, secretary.

CHEERLEADERS—"Memories were the cloth used this year as the cheerleading squad attempted to weave from the enthusiasm of the student body pep assemblies, and athletic contests themselves a tapestry of school spirit." Seniors Bonnie Sunkel, Pat Montanaro, Linda Buckey, and Kim Thompson, and juniors Sylvia Hanna and Martha Imhoff collaborated to bring together the golden threads of such things as bus trips to Hamilton and Marietta, along with the "heart to heart" gab sessions in the back seat, and the excitement of tournament time; urging and succeeding in making NHS practice good sportsmanship; John Ankele's Interpretation of Mr. Boyd at the football pep assemblies; the big bonfires before the Zanesville game; their "Harlem Globetrotter" routine at the basketball assembly; introducing assistant cheerleader Mr. Charles Beadle to the student body, thereby starting a new tradition; helping to train all sophomores trying out for the reserve squad; the spaghetti supper at Montanaro's; eating after the games at the Center Cafe; and, certainly very important, the friendships made with the cheerleaders from other schools

The Thespian troupe of Newark High is interested in bringing drama into the reach of all the students. In line with this philosophy Thespians offered two plays to the student body this fall: a mystery Ten Little Indians, and O'Henry's The Gift of the Magi.

Thespians have had make-up demonstrations, stage practice demonstrations and two clean up sessions. It is hoped the troupe will be able to go to some dramatic performances later this year.

Students wishing to become Thespians may earn points by working on committees during rehearsals of a play or by being a cast member.

Thespian troupe 1273 hopes to present an evening of one-act plays and another three-act play during the 1959-1960 school year.

Officers for the year were Walter Bolton, president; Karen Myers, vice president; Mary Ann Cunningham, secretary; Joan Simpson, treasurer.

FRENCH CLUB

The aim of the French Club this year is to supplement class room study with interesting activities based on the culture and civilization of the French people.

During the year monthly meetings were held in the homes of members. Augmenting these regular meetings, two picnics and a Christmas party were held.

Officers for 1959-60 were as follows: Jane Pyle, president; Flory Jones, vice president; Lois Rey, secretary; Joyce Weakley, treasurer.

Row 4—Pete Hewitt, Bill Douglas, Tom Morrison, Ronnie Maddux, Bill Anderson, Tom Heisey, Larry Ruton, Judy Maddux, Ann Wilson.

The Spanish Club, under the supervision of Miss Ann Rodgers, has been extremely active this year as in past years. The officers of this club have spent much time and put forth great effort to make their meetings very interesting and enjoyable. The officers are Roberta Pettit, president; Bob Hughes, vice-president; Lloyd Berger, treasurer; and Becky Rader, secretary.

Every year the Spanish Club holds three major events: a fall picnic, a Christmas Party, and a spring party or outing. The regular meetings are held at the houses of the students.

The purpose of the club is to create a social atmosphere such as exists in Spain and Mexico. At meetings, Spanish records are played, along with different games, and an interesting report is usually given by one or more members.

GERMAN CLUB

It is the aim of the German Club to better each member's knowledge of the history, geography, customs, traditions and people of German-speaking lands. The following officers were elected at the start of the year: Sharyn Thompson, president; Vicki Lukasko, vice-president; Karen Myers, secretary; and James Macklin, treasurer. The Club was under the direction of Miss Ingeborg Rodemann.

Several meetings were held in the homes of various members. The programs consisted of such things as learning German folk dances and games, singing German songs, and viewing films of the country.

The Christmas party was given in the library. Those attending were members of the club, their guests, and others interested in Germany. For entertainment Dick Bibart and Ben Rader gave a humorous dialogue, Karen Myers told the story of "Stille Nacht Heilige Nacht," and a one act play under the direction of Vicki Lukasko was presented. Refreshments and decorations added to the festive German atmosphere. After learning German carols the club spent an evening caroling for German residents of Newark.

The year's activities were brought to a close with a picnic on Horn's Hill.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club began its second consecutive year in NHS with the finding of twelve Roman wall plaques which are being planned to be used in the new high school. The club also started a classical library which is presently located in 106. A program was set up for every meeting which included lectures, movies, and an occasional visit from a twenty year old Italian named Lucio Benedetto.

We try to make the Latin Club a club that the member should be proud of,' says Bob Hall, president. The other officers in the club are Jack Dickerson, vice president; Jerry Cotterman, secretary; Flory Jones, treasurer; and Miss Pauline McCreary, faculty adviser.

PARENT-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

At Table—Don Dome, Ohio Power; Gale Piper, Newark Ohio Company; Harold Ballinger, President of First National Bank, Don Leidy, President of NHS PTA, Ray Blantz, Manager of J. C. Penney Company, Mr. W. L. Klare, B and L Motor Freight Company. These men led a panel at the second meeting.

The Newark chapter of the National Honor Society was formed to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in students.

Twenty-eight seniors with a point average of 3.3 or above were taken into the society the second semester. Officers were Mary Lou Tims, president, Jane Pyle, vice-president; Barbara Conner, secretary; and Sheryl Morehead, treasurer. Mrs. Ruth Perry was the adviser.

The Honor Society recognition assembly was held on April 26; the banquet May 4.

ACTIVITIES AND CLUBS---1911-1960

Clubs have played an important part in the curricular life at NHS, but how important their roles have been depends pretty much upon individuals who joined and called themselves members. Many undoubtedly have become members because of a sincere desire to serve in some way, others have joined in search of status only.

There were few clubs and activities in 1911. Athletics of course was not quite so supreme as now. Plays were produced before well tiled houses. Athenians was the honor group for boys, Thalias for girls. In these early years of the Reveille, debate was very important competition among teams representing Newark, Mt. Vernon, and Zanesville ran high in the annual Triangular Debates. Because there were few cars, no spectacular motion pictures, no radio or TV to drain off interest of the less enthusiastic, most activities and clubs were well supported.

Club activity seemed to reach some sort of zenith between 1930 and 1950. There was a group for just about every interesting group of students might have from bird watching to writing. Student Council made its appearance in the mid 1930's and the Athenians and Thalias dissolved into the National Honor Society. Operetta even flourished for a few years and played to packed houses.

But changes were quietly taking place and trends could be noted. First the junior play disappeared, and within the last year or so the senior play has disappeared from the stage. Dramatic groups have been playing to only a fraction of the audience the stage once commanded. Whereas plays at one time were offered twice at matinees and twice in evening performances, today a play is offered only one night to an audience which does not even fill the main floor of the auditorium. Likewise debate has receded into the background and most of its activity is carried on away from Newark.

Also within the twenty years between 1930 and 1950 athletics zoomed to its stellar heights with the impetus given it by the organization of the Boosters Club. And then along came the Band Parents Club around 1940 which propelled the band into the eye of public appeal so that at this writing these two giants often vie for popular acclaim with their spectacular activity.

But although the general public may not be aware of the fact and cares less, other activities and clubs still do exist. Many clubs today are an important adjunct to the regular classroom subject. They carry on an active and effective program. There are two which are something new in structure the Cup and Chaucer Club and the Sphinx Society that are organizations in name only and have the sole function of building a classroom library in College English 12 and Ancient History.

What clubs and organizations function today are strong and will probably continue for some years to come. Some will disappear but others will take their places. What is popular and supreme today may fifty years from now be a minor organization functioning well with its few enthusiasts keeping alive the spark of special interest. By the same token, a club such as the Astronomy Club, which today numbers around a dozen members may fifty years from now be one of the powerhouses of the school with its parents group known as the Rocketeers.

Underclassmen

Over this hole in the ground will in the near future resound the pitter-patter of the big feet of this year's junior and sophomore classes.

WOODROW WILSON JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Woodrow Wilson was the third of the new junior high school buildings to be opened in Newark. It opened its doors in 1930. However, in 1911, many pupils who now attend the school on Church Street went to Cherry Valley School, the old section of which is pictured below.

CHERRY VALLEY SCHOOL

WOODROW WILSON JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

In the school year 1958-1959 the first course in junior high school Conversational French was established at Woodrow Wilson Junior High School.

The above picture is the present Eighth Grade Conversational French Class which was started last year. We anticipate that this group will elect to take Ninth Grade French next year.

Similar classes have been established in all of the junior high schools in the city and Wilson School is proud to have pioneered this course of study with the above group under the direction of Mrs. John Mason.

ROOSEVELT JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

North Fourth Street School was erected in 1874 so that by 1911 it would have been classed as an "old" school. In 1929 when Roosevelt Junior High School was opened the old Fourth Street School was abandoned.

ROOSEVELT JUNIOR HI-Y

Jim Fekete, President; Bill Catt, Vice President; Jim Tima, Secretary-Treasurer, John Egnew, Chaplain;
Mr. James Gregory, Club Advisor

The Junior Hi-Y is one of the newest clubs to be organized at Roosevelt Junior High. It is primarily a fellowship and service organization, sponsored jointly by the Newark Public Schools and the YMCA and has 24 active members.

The activities of the year included a trip to Cleveland to watch a Cleveland Brown's football game, a two-day camping trip, a basketball game with the faculty, a Youth in Government Day in which some of the boys took over a city government job for a day, group swimming and basketball at the Y, and a school dance co-sponsored with the student council.

The club, along with the ninth grade choir, put on an Easter assembly for the junior high. At the end of the school year the club plans to donate the surplus in its treasury toward something needed for the school.

CENTRAL JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

The most venerable spot for public school education in Newark is the one located on West Church Street on the site of Central Junior High School. Old Centra was opened for business in the autumn of 1851 and remained in business until it was razed in 1939 to make way for the new structure. The Reveille was therefore launched well in the middle of the old school's long history.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS AT CENTRAL

Assisting in the library provides these girls with useful knowledge of library procedures and constitutes a valuable service to the school.

They help in the various duties that are included in the school library facilities. Under the direction of Mrs. Miriam Walters, librarian, the girls are responsible for charging and discharging books at the desk, preparing new books for circulation, bulletin board displays, and many other tasks which are a part of operating a library.

Both the school and the girls benefit from the services rendered by this group.

HONOR SOCIETY AT LINCOLN SCHOOL 1959-60

The Lincoln Chapter of the National Junior Honor Society was organized in 1946 to honor the outstanding students of the eighth and ninth grades. The aims of the chapter are to create an enthusiasm for supreme scholarship, to develop loyal pupil citizenship, to stimulate a desire to serve faithfully one's school, community, and country, to promote trustworthy leadership, and to instill exemplary qualities of character in the pupils of the school.

The ninth grade of this Honor Society has attained and possesses to an outstanding degree these qualities in their other activities and clubs.

The officers are as follows: James Cocanour, President; Joyce Hollingshead, Vice President; Rhoda Gearhart, Secretary; Dixie Hoyt, Treasurer; Mrs. Robert B. Thomas, Sponsor.

The First Reveille

Here is the Front of Volume I, Number 1, of The Reveille.

Published March 1, 1911

Newark, Ohio.

March 1, 1911

Editorial comment concerning the first issue of the Reveille may be found on page 14 of that periodical and runs, in part, as follows:

Following out the principle embodied in that old axiom, "Everything must have a beginning," the Reveille of Newark High has begun.

The Reveille is not the result of a sudden inspiration on the part of the Senior Class, nor of any one person. For several years a high school paper had been talked of and planned, it has remained for the Class of 1911 to take action on the matter . . .

The editorial concludes: "Therefore, let every loyal student of Newark High respond to the Reveille and form an invincible cohort through whose untiring efforts our paper may be carried on to certain success and reach its place among the best."

Danger! This word was one of the first to be used in connection with the erection of the new Newark Senior High School. The above pictures show ground breaking and grading activities on the site of the new building.

The fact that as the Reveille celebrates its fiftieth birthday it can look to a new home in the future is rather an auspicious situation. For fifty years the Reveille has been published within the venerable, although somewhat deteriorating walls of the old building on West Main Street. The Reveille can now look to fifty years of publication within the Hub of the new campus-style Newark Senior High School south of Sherwood Drive

For several years school people and many citizens have been aware of the fact that Newark would have to have a new high school building. Realization of this fact did not come quickly, however. A brief tracing of the evolution of the high school can explain this

Newark's original public high school, as has been pointed out elsewhere, was Old Central, opened in the autumn of 1851 (the third story was added in 1854). Old Central functioned as the high school until the erection of a building on West Main Street in 1884. Old Central continued to operate as an eight-grade school. By the fall of 1906, Newark's school population had outgrown the single unit on West Main Street and, consequently, our an nex was opened for student reception in the fall of 1908

Meanwhile, a long struggle had been going on to acquire for NHS a gymnasium. Some of the earliest issues of the Reveille point up Newark's need for a place to house its physical education and athletic program. However, not until September 1924 did actual construction get under way. The Class of 1926 was the first group of seniors to use the new gym on Fifth Street

Another annex in the form of the Manual Arts

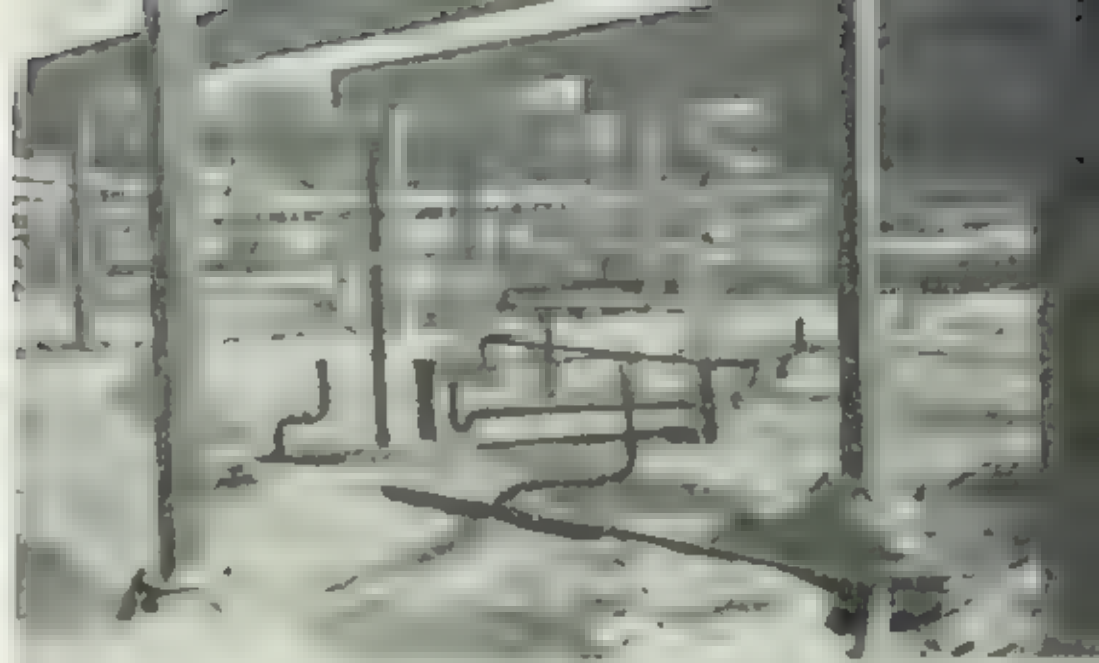

Building was begun in 1928 when the Board of Education purchased ground across the alley in the rear of the 1908 annex

But the school population continued to grow. Because of this growth and because of the fact that the original building of 1884 had become antiquated, a new building replaced the old in 1939. At the same time the Reveille for 1939 showed an architectural drawing (on page 15) of the projected high school. This drawing incorporated the new wing

Euphonic?
Could this be the underpinning of Warden Seadle's detention institution?

By the late 1950's however, it became evident that the Main Street site was becoming quite unsatisfactory. The center of population of the city had shifted westward, the area of land upon which the school was located was smaller than believed adequate by school authorities, the industrialized neighborhood was quite dirty because of smoke and dust stirred up by traffic, and traffic had increased on Main Street to such proportions that it was not only noisy but also dangerous. True, some land had been acquired by the Board of Education in anticipation of the building program on the present site, but by May of 1957 the people of Newark were confronted by a bond issue, part of which was to be used to erect a new high school. The issue passed.

The next year was given over to meetings among faculty, administration, and architects concerning the nature of the new building. Somewhere along the line the campus style building emerged, and in the spring of 1959 ground breaking ceremonies were held

Although more time has been asked by the contractor, the Board of Education has insisted that the school be ready for occupancy in September of 1960

And these men
really work hard for our future comfort and pleasure!

Last year was a good hula-hoop year . . .

This photograph was taken by Don Pound in a darkened room with only the light from the hula hoops. The lighting was not done by the camera, but by the hula hoops. Linda Reel was the model for this photograph.
